

6780. Adulteration of horse beans. U. S. * * * v. 638 Bags of Horse Beans. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product ordered released on bond. (F. & D. No. 9171. I. S. No. 2201-r. S. No. W-232.)

On July 26, 1918, the United States attorney for the District of Utah, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 638 bags of horse beans, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Ogden, Utah, alleging that the article had been shipped on or about July 22, 1918, by P. Caldarone, Sacramento, Cal., and was en route from the State of California to the State of Massachusetts, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in part of a filthy and decomposed vegetable substance.

On October 8, 1918, Caldarone & Grillo, Boston, Mass., claimants, having consented to a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be released to said claimants upon the payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $7,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that the product should be shipped to Boston, Mass., there to be duly inspected by a representative of this department after the same had been sorted.
