

sulphate, sulphur, iron oxid, and plant material, including fragments of seeds and hulls.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that the cartons and circulars inside the cartons bore and contained certain statements, regarding the curative and therapeutic effects thereof, to wit, (carton) "Dr. Harper's Anti-Cholera Tonic for Hogs Given to Prevent Diseases of Swine For worms * * *," (circular) "How to Prevent Hog Cholera * * * About every other day give to each hog a tablespoonful of Dr. Harper's Anti-Cholera * * * in most cases acts as preventive to disease * * * Use Anti-Cholera and you will have no sick hogs to cure. Your hogs will gain in weight and the meat will be free from disease," which were false and fraudulent in that the article contained no ingredient or combination of ingredients capable of producing the effects claimed.

On March 30, 1920, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

8517. Misbranding of Texas Wonder. U. S. * * * v. 6 Dozen Bottles of Texas Wonder. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 11888. I. S. No. 16500-r. S. No. E-1932.)

On January 20, 1920, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Georgia, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 6 dozen bottles of Texas Wonder, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Atlanta, Ga., consigned by E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo., alleging that the article had been shipped September 29, 1919, and transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Georgia, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended.

Analysis of a sample of the article by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department showed that it consisted essentially of balsam of copaiba, rhubarb, turpentine, guaiac, and alcohol.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that the statements borne on the labels, cartons, and bottles and in the accompanying circular, to wit, (carton) "* * * A Remedy for Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Weak and Lame Backs, Rheumatism and Gravel. Regulates Bladder Trouble in Children * * *," (bottle) "A Texas Wonder for Kidneys Bladder Trouble * * ," (circular) " * * Hall's Great Discovery * * * In Gravel and Rheumatic Troubles it should be taken every night in 25-drop doses until relieved," were false and fraudulent, in that they were applied to said article knowingly and in reckless and wanton disregard of their truth or falsity, so as to represent falsely and fraudulently to the purchaser thereof and to create in the mind of the purchaser thereof, the impression and belief that the article was in whole or in part composed of and contained ingredients and medicinal agents effective as a remedy for kidney and bladder troubles, weak and lame backs, rheumatism, and gravel, and to regulate bladder trouble in children, whereas, in truth and in fact, it was not.

On June 24, 1920, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
