N. J. 11751-11800.

[Approved by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., January 24, 1924.]

NOTICES OF JUDGMENT UNDER THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT.

[Given pursuant to section 4 of the Food and Drugs Act.]

11751. Adulteration and misbranding of alimentary paste. U. S. v. 200 Boxes of Alimentary Paste. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 14598. I. S. Nos. 10343-t, 10344-t. S. No. W-887.)

On March 8, 1921, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 200 boxes of alimentary paste at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been delivered by the Columbus Mercantile Co., San Francisco, Calif., for shipment into the Territory of Hawaii, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended. A portion of the article was labeled in part: "Flour Macaroni 6 Lbs. Net." The remainder of the said article was labeled in part: "Flour Spaghetti 6 Lbs. Net Quality Columbus Macaroni."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that excessive moisture had been mixed and packed with and substituted wholly or in part for the said article. Adulteration was alleged for the further reason that the article was mixed in a manner whereby damage or inferiority was concealed.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statements, "Flour Macaroni," "Flour Spaghetti," and "6 Lbs. Net," borne on the labels, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article, and for the further reason that it was [food] in package form, and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On May 24, 1923, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

11752. Adulteration of coal-tar color. U. S. v. 1 Pound of Yellow Coal-Tar Color, et al. Default decrees of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. Nos. 14705, 14706, 14785, 14798, 14813. I. S. Nos. 1695-t, 1699-t, 1700-t, 2555-t, 2560-t, 2564-t. S. Nos. C-2957, C-2959, C-2964, C-2969, C-2978.)

On April 13, 14, and 26, 1921, respectively, the United States attorney for the Western District of Louisiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying the seizure and condemnation of 4 cans of yellow coal-tar color, 2 cans of red coal-tar color, and 1 can of purple coal-tar color, in various lots at Ruston, Winnfield, Opelousas, Lake Charles, and Kinder, La., respectively, alleging that the article had been shipped by the W. B. Wood Mfg. Co., St. Louis, Mo., between the dates of May 10, 1920, and March 15, 1921, and had been transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Louisiana, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The labels of the said article bore the statement, "1 Lb. Net * * * W. B. Wood Mfg. Co. * * * St. Louis, Mo.," and the statements, "Red," "Yellow," or "Purple," as the case might be.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that sodium chloride and sodium sulphate had been mixed and packed with and substituted wholly or in part for the article. Adulteration was alleged for the further reason that the article contained an added poisonous or deleterious ingredient, to wit, arsenic, which might render it injurious to health.

On May 17 and June 1, 1923, respectively, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

HOWARD M. GORE, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

11753. Misbranding of Giles' germicide. U. S. v. 6 Bottles of Giles' Germicide. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 16126. I. S. No. 19-t. S. No. C-3524.)

On April 25, 1922, the United States attorney for the District of Indiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 6 bottles of Giles' germicide, remaining in the original unbroken packages at La Fayette, Ind., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Giles Remedy Co., Chicago, Ill., on or about September 10, 1921, and transported from the State of Illinois into the State of Indiana, and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended. The article was labeled in part: (Carton) "Registered Giles' Germicide Trade Mark Aether Sulphuricus, 10% Guaranteed by Giles Remedy Co. to contain no poisonous Drugs or deleterious matter A Modern Remedy Recommended For Ailments caused by disease producing germs within and without the body Neutralizes and Expels From The Blood The toxins of germs and other poisons or impurities, Allays internal or external congestion or inflammation. Absolutely Harmless."

Analysis of a sample of the article by the Bureau of Chemistry of this department showed that it consisted essentially of camphor, ether, and linseed oil, and was not an antiseptic or a germicide.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that the above-quoted statements regarding the curative and therapeutic effects of the said article were false and fraudulent in that the article did not contain any ingredient or combination of ingredients capable of producing the results claimed.

On October 21, 1922, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

11754. Misbranding of white beans. U. S. v. Ady & Crowe Mercantile Co., a Corporation. Plea of guilty. Fine, $50 and costs. (F. & D. No. 16205. I. S. No. 13001-t.)

On June 5, 1922, the United States attorney for the District of Colorado, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district an information against Ady & Crowe Mercantile Co., a corporation, Denver, Colo., alleging shipment by said company, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, as amended, on or about October 18, 1921, from the State of Colorado into the State of Wyoming, of a quantity of white beans in sacks which were misbranded.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the information for the reason that it was food in package form, and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On July 6, 1922, a plea of guilty to the information was entered on behalf of the defendant company, and the court imposed a fine of $50 and costs.
