

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that the statements on the respective-sized containers, " $\frac{1}{2}$  Gallon Net," " $\frac{1}{2}$  Gallon Net," and "1 Gallon Net," as the case might be, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On November 5, 1923, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

On September 28, 1923, the United States attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation, of 25 cases of sardines, at Johnstown, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped by the E. A. Holmes Packing Co., from Washington, D. C., on or about June 8, 1923, and transported from the District of Columbia into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Glenco Brand * * * Globe Canning Co. N. Lubec, Maine * * * American Sardines In Mustard Sauce."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

On December 10, 1923, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

12014. Adulteration and misbranding of cottonseed meal. U. S. v. 30 Bags, et al., of Cottonseed Meal. Consent decrees of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. Nos. 17175, 17177. I. S. Nos. 3259-v, 3272-v. S. No. E-4281.)

On or about January 19, 1923, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Florida, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying the seizure and condemnation of 105 bags of cottonseed meal, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Tampa, Fla., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Planters Oil Co., from Albany, Ga., on or about November 17, 1922, and transported from the State of Georgia into the State of Florida, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "One Hundred Lbs. Second Class Cotton Seed Meal Manufactured by Planters Oil Co. Albany, Ga. Guaranteed Analysis. Ammonia * * * 7.00 per cent * * * Protein 36.00 per cent."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libels for the reason that a substance deficient in protein (ammonia) had been mixed and packed therewith so as to reduce and lower and injuriously affect its quality and strength and had been substituted in whole or in part for the said article.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statements in the labeling, "Cotton Seed Meal * * * Guaranteed Analysis. Ammonia * * * 7.00 per cent * * * Protein 36.00 per cent," were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, since the article was deficient in protein.

On February 21, 1923, the Planters Oil Co., Albany, Ga., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libels and consented to the entry of decrees, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the aggregate sum of $450, in conformity with section 10 of the act.
