12813. Adulteration of canned salmon. U. S. v. 1,936 Cases of Canned Salmon. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 18922. I. S. No. 7761-v. S. No. W-1557.)

On or about August 21, 1924, the United States attorney for the Western District of Washington, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 1,936 cases of canned salmon, consigned by the A. & P. Products Corp., remaining in the original unbroken packages at Seattle, Wash., alleging that the article had been shipped from Cape Edwards, Alaska, July 20, 1924, and transported from the Territory of Alaska into the State of Washington, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "Iona Brand Pink Salmon Packed * * * By The A. & P. Products Corporation."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

During the month of September, 1924, the A. & P. Products Corp., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $2,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that the good portion be separated from the bad portion under the supervision of this department, and the bad portion destroyed.
