

alleging shipment by said company, in violation of the food and drugs act as amended, on or about October 3, 1923, from the State of Texas into the State of Ohio, of a quantity of cottonseed meal which was misbranded. The article was labeled in part: "100 Lbs. Net * * * Cotton Seed Meal."

Thirty sacks weighed by an inspector of the Bureau of Chemistry of this department averaged 96.5 pounds net weight.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the information for the reason that the statement, to wit "100 Lbs. Net," borne on the tags attached to the sacks containing the article, was false and misleading, in that the said statement represented that each of the sacks contained 100 pounds net of the article, and for the further reason that it was labeled as aforesaid so as to deceive and mislead the purchaser into the belief that each of the said sacks contained 100 pounds of the article, whereas each of said sacks did not contain 100 pounds net of the said article, but did contain a less amount. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the packages.

On February 14, 1925, a plea of nolo contendere to the information was entered on behalf of the defendant company, and the court imposed a fine of $100.

13211. Adulteration and alleged misbranding of butter. U. S. v. 17 Cubes of Butter. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No 19828. I. S. No. 20485-v. S. No. W-1636.)

On February 5, 1925, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 17 cubes of butter, remaining in the original unbroken packages at San Francisco, Calif., consigned by Snyder Dairy Products [Snider Dairy & Produce Co.], Medford, Oreg., alleging that the article had been shipped from Medford, Oreg., February 1, 1925, and transported from the State of Oregon into the State of California, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that a substance deficient in milk fat had been mixed and packed with and substituted wholly or in part for butter, and for the further reason that a valuable constituent, namely, milk fat, had been in part abstracted.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the article was food in package form and the label bore no statement of the quantity of the contents.

On March 17, 1925, the Wilsey Bennett Co., San Francisco, Calif., having appeared as claimant for the property and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of the court was entered, finding the product adulterated and ordering its condemnation and forfeiture, and it was further ordered by the court that the said product be released to the claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,000, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that it be brought into compliance with the law under the supervision of this department.

13212. Adulteration and misbranding of imitation lemon flavor. U. S. v. 3 Cases of Imitation Lemon Flavor. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 18716. I. S. No. 20095-v. S. No. W-1510.)

On or about June 16, 1924, the United States attorney for the District of Idaho, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 3 cases of imitation lemon flavor, at Wallace, Idaho, alleging that the article had been shipped by the Gray Mfg. Co., Spokane, Wash., on or about September 29, 1923, and transported from the State of Washington into the State of Idaho, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Pint Special Imitation Flavor Of Lemon * * * For Flavoring Ice Cream, Jellies, Pastry, Custards, Etc. Put Up By Gray Manufacturing Co. Manufacturers And Importers Spokane Wash."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that a worthless article possessing a negligible flavoring value had been substituted wholly or in part for imitation lemon flavoring, and for the further reason that it was colored in a manner whereby inferiority was concealed.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statement "Special Imitation Flavor Of Lemon For Flavoring Ice Cream, Jellies, Pastry, Custards, Etc.," appearing on the labels, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, and for the further reason that it was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On February 25, 1925, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

13213. Misbranding of potatoes. U. S. v. 260 Sacks of Potatoes. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 19069. I. S. No. 13768-v. S. No. E-4992.)

On October 17, 1924, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the Supreme Court of the district aforesaid, holding a district court, a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 260 sacks of potatoes, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Washington, D. C., alleging that the article was being sold and offered for sale by N. J. Ward & Co., in the District of Columbia, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Michigan Potato Growers Exchange Net Weight When Packed 150 Lbs. U. S. Grade No. 1."

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that the statement "U. S. Grade No. 1" was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser.

On October 20, 1924, N. J. Ward, Washington, D. C., having appeared as claimant for the property and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $300, in conformity with section 10 of the act.

13214. Adulteration of chestnuts. U. S. v. 5 Barrels and 5 Barrels of Chestnuts. Default decrees of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. Nos. 19148, 19187. I. S. Nos. 19705-v, 22110-v. S. Nos. C-4530, C-4537.)

On or about November 12 and 21, 1924, respectively, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Ohio, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying the seizure and condemnation of 10 barrels of chestnuts, at Cleveland, Ohio, alleging that the article had been shipped by the Feller, Kronman Co., New York, N. Y., on or about October 17, 1924, and transported from the State of New York into the State of Ohio, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On January 30, 1925, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
