14285. Adulteration of canned frozen eggs. U. S. v. 300 30-Pound Cans of Frozen Mixed Eggs. Decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 20922. I. S. No. 6199-x. S. No. E-5661.)

On March 11, 1926, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 300 30-pound cans of frozen mixed eggs, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Philadelphia, Pa., consigned by Swift & Co., alleging that the article had been shipped from Springfield, Mo., on or about May 18, 1925, and transported from the State of Missouri into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Swift's Frozen Eggs * * * Swift & Company Chicago, U. S. A."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid animal substance.

On May 6, 1926, A. F. Bickley & Son, Philadelphia, Pa., having appeared as claimant for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $2,500, conditioned in part that it be sorted under the supervision of this department and the portion unfit for food be denatured or destroyed.

14286. Adulteration of canned salmon. U. S. v. 328 Cases of Salmon. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 18427. I. S. Nos. 7066-v, 17687-v. S. No. C-4296.)

On February 28, 1924, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 328 cases of salmon, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Peoria, Ill., consigned by F. C. Barnes Co., alleging that the article had been shipped from Seattle, Wash., on or about September 25, 1923, and transported from the State of Washington into the State of Illinois, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "Navy Peak Brand Fancy Pink Salmon Packed For Burnett Inlet Packing Co. Burnett Inlet, Alaska."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it consisted wholly or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal substance.

On March 10, 1926, the Burnett Inlet Packing Co., Burnett Inlet, Alaska, claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a good and sufficient bond, in conformity with section 10 of the act, and it was further ordered that the said product be reshipped to Seattle, to be sorted, and that the good portion might be disposed of for human food and the remainder for chick or fox feed.

14287. Adulteration and misbranding of spirit nitrous ether. U. S. v. 3½ Gallons of Spirit Nitrous Ether. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 20971. I. S. No. 10245-x. S. No. C-5046.)

On March 26, 1926, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Ohio, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 3½ gallons of spirit nitrous ether, at Lima, Ohio, alleging that the article had been shipped by the Felborn Pharmacal Co., Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y., on or about January 12, 1926, and transported from the State of New York into the State of Ohio, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "Spirit Nitrous Ether U. S. P. Sweet Spirit of Nitre * * * Contains Between 3.5 and 4.5 % of Ethyl Nitrite * * * Felborn Pharmacal Co., Inc., Brooklyn, N. Y."

Adulteration of the article was alleged in substance in the libel for the reason that it was offered for sale under the distinctive name of an article recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia, and differed from the standard of strength, quality, and purity as determined by tests laid down in said pharmacopœia, and in that its strength and purity fell below the professed standard or quality under which it was sold, to wit, "Spirit Nitrous Ether U. S. P. Sweet Spirit of Nitre Contains Between 3.5 and 4.5 % of Ethyl Nitrite," since the said product contained not more than 2.4 per cent of ethyl nitrite, and an added ingredient, to wit, acetone, 3.9 per cent by volume. It was further alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in violation of section 7, paragraph 1 under drugs, of said act, in that it contained 3.9 per cent by volume of acetone.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the statement "Contains Between 3.5 and 4.5 % of Ethyl Nitrite," borne on the label, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser.

On April 24, 1926, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.

14288. Misbranding of cottonseed meal. U. S. v. 400 Sacks of Cottonseed Meal. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 21013. I. S. No. 1093-x. S. No. W-1950.)

On April 10, 1926, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 400 sacks of cottonseed meal, remaining in the original unbroken packages at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped by Spears & Co., from El Paso, Tex., March 3, 1926, and transported from the State of Texas into the State of California, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "43% Protein Cotton Seed Meal. Manufactured By Spears & Company El Paso, Texas Guaranteed Analysis Crude Protein Not Less Than 43.00 per cent."

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that the statements "43% Protein" "Crude Protein Not Less Than 43.00 per cent," borne on the label, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser.

On May 4, 1926, the Consolidated Milling Co., San Francisco, Calif., having appeared as claimant for the property and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $500.20, in conformity with section 10 of the act, conditioned in part that it be made to conform to the provisions of the law under the supervision of this department.

14289. Adulteration and misbranding of evaporated apples. U. S. v. R. D. Waterman & Son, Inc. Plea of guilty. Fine, $25 and costs. (F. & D. No. 19719. I. S. No. 14792-v.)

On February 16, 1926, the United States attorney for the Western District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district an information against R. D. Waterman & Son, Inc., Fruitland, N. Y., alleging shipment by said company, in violation of the food and drugs act as amended, on or about December 9, 1924, from the State of New York into the State of Minnesota, of a quantity of evaporated apples which were adulterated and misbranded. The article was labeled in part: (Box) "Lake Shore Brand Evaporated Apples R. D. Waterman & Son, Inc. Fruitland, N. Y.," (package) "Lakeshore Brand New York State Apples 12 Oz.," (rubber stamped "10 Oz.") "Net * * * Packed By R. D. Waterman & Son, Inc. Fruitland & Williamson, N. Y. U. S. A."
