

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that the statements "1 pound net," and "¼ pound net weight," appearing on the pound and quarter pound cartons, respectively, were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser, and for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the packages, since the quantities stated on the packages, respectively, were not correct.

On April 6, 1927, the James McPhillips Grocery Co., Mobile, Ala., having appeared as claimant for the property, and having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment was entered ordering that the product be released to the said claimant upon the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,000, conditioned in part that it be reconditioned, repacked, and relabeled, under the supervision of this department, and it was further ordered by the court that upon the reconditioning of the product and the approval of this department the cause be dismissed at the cost of the claimant.

On September 23, 1927, the United States attorney for the Western District of Washington, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 35 bags of shredded figs, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Seattle, Wash., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Sunland Sales Cooperative Assoc., from Fresno, Calif., August 16, 1927, and transported from the State of California into the State of Washington, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: "Shredded Figs Calimyrna, California Peach & Fig Growers Association, Main Office, Fresno, California."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated, in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On December 23, 1927, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
