

figs, 28 cases of dried white figs, and 51 boxes of dried black figs, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Denver, Trinidad, and Grand Junction, Colo., respectively, consigned by the Sunland Sales Cooperative Assoc., Fresno, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped from Fresno, Calif., in various consignments, between the dates of March 21 and September 7, 1927, and transported from the State of California into the State of Colorado, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. On or about October 1 and 6, 1927, respectively, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district libels praying seizure and condemnation of 15 cases of butter, remaining in the original unbroken packages at New Orleans, La., alleging that the article had been shipped by the H. C. Christians Co., from Chicago, Ill., in part on or about September 26, 1927, and in part on or about October 4, 1927, and transported from the State of Illinois into the State of Louisiana, and charging misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act, as amended. The article was labeled in part: (Carton) "Ayrshire Brand * * * Creamery Butter Sold by H. C. Christians Co., Johnson Creek, Wis. * * * Contents 1 Pound Net."

It was alleged in the libels that the article was short in weight and misbranded, in that the statement "1 Pound Net," borne on the label, was false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On October 4 and October 7, 1927, respectively, the H. C. Christians Co., Johnson Creek, Wis., having appeared as claimant for the property and having admitted the allegations of the libels, judgments of condemnation and forfeiture were entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of bonds totaling $225, conditioned in part that it be reworked and reconditioned to comply with the law.
