NOTICES OF JUDGMENT UNDER THE FOOD AND DRUGS ACT

[Given pursuant to section 4 of the food and drugs act]

15651—15700

[Approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, December 13, 1928, Washington, D. C.]

15651. Adulteration of scallops. U. S. v. 3 Boxes of Scallops. Default decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product delivered to charitable institution. (F. & D. No. 22417. I. S. No. 21577-x. S. No. 451.)

On January 14, 1928, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 3 boxes of scallops at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Brown, Lowe Co., Beaufort, N. C., on or about January 12, 1928, and transported from the State of North Carolina into the State of New York, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that a substance, water, had been mixed and packed with and substituted in part for scallops.

On January 28, 1928, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the portions of the product fit for human consumption be delivered to a charitable institution.

W. M. JARDINE, Secretary of Agriculture.

15652. Adulteration of dried figs. U. S. v. 1200 Boxes and 1200 Boxes of Dried Figs. Consent decree of condemnation and forfeiture. Product released under bond. (F. & D. No. 21744. I. S. Nos. 75-x, 17001-x. S. No. E-6062.)

On or about March 22, 1927, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 2,400 boxes of dried figs, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Brooklyn, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped by Rosenberg Bros. & Co., from San Francisco, Calif., on or about February 21, 1927, and had been transported from the State of California into the State of New York, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On September 21, 1927, Rosenberg Bros. & Co., San Francisco, Calif., claimants, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimants, upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $7,500, conditioned in part that it be relabeled, "Not For Human Consumption," and not be used for human consumption or for purposes other than distillation of alcohol and hog feed.

W. M. JARDINE, Secretary of Agriculture.

15653. Adulteration of scallops. U. S. v. 11 Gallons of Scallops. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 22660. I. S. No. 21043-x. S. No. 608.)

On February 21, 1928, the United States attorney for the District of Massachusetts, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 11 gallons of scallops, remaining in the original unbroken
