

20651. Adulteration of canned frozen whole eggs. U. S. v. Kadane-Brown, Inc. Plea of guilty. Fine, $125. (F. & D. no. 28082. I.S. no. 38711.)

This action was based on the interstate shipment of a quantity of canned frozen whole eggs, samples of which were found to be decomposed.

On May 12, 1932, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Texas, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for the district aforesaid an information against Kadane-Brown, Inc., a corporation, Dallas, Tex., alleging shipment by said company on or about September 23, 1931, in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, from the State of Texas into the State of New Jersey, of a quantity of canned frozen whole eggs that were adulterated. The article was labeled in part: (Cans) "Whole Eggs American Albumen Corporation Frozen Eggs * * * New York Dallas."

It was alleged in the information that the article was adulterated in that it consisted in part of decomposed and putrid animal substances.

On January 27, 1933, a plea of guilty to the information was entered on behalf of the defendant company, and the court imposed a fine of $125.

20652. Adulteration and misbranding of potatoes. U. S. v. 240 Sacks of Potatoes. Default decree of forfeiture and destruction. (F. & D. no. 28348. Sample no. 3099-A.)

This action involved a shipment of potatoes represented to be United States grade no. 1 which were found to be below the grade specified.

On May 25, 1932, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for the district aforesaid a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 240 sacks of potatoes at Benton, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about May 14, 1932, by Chetek Equity Co-operative Produce Co., from Chetek, Wis., to Benton, Ill., and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "U. S. Grade Number 1."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that potatoes below the grade indicated on the label had been substituted wholly or in part for the article.

Misbranding of the article was alleged for the reason that the statement on the tag, "U. S. Grade Number 1", was false.

On January 31, 1933, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of forfeiture was entered and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
