

district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 32 cases of olive oil at Scranton, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce, on or about May 3, 1933, and February 27, 1934, by Strohmeier & Arpe Co., from New York, N. Y., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act as amended. The article was labeled in part: "One Gallon Anita B and Pure Olive Oil Imported Product United Pure Food Co., N. Y. Importers and Packers."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was misbranded in that the statement on the label, "One Gallon", was false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package, since the statement made was incorrect.

On June 19, 1934, Strohmeier & Arpe Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the claimant upon payment of costs and the execution of a bond in the sum of $500, conditioned that it be relabeled to show the exact quantity of the contents.
