

24990. Adulteration of blueberries. U. S. v. 58 Crates of Blueberries. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 36224. Sample no. 36349-B.)

This case involved a shipment of blueberries which contained maggots.

On August 1, 1935, the United States attorney for the District of Massachusetts, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 58 crates of blueberries at Boston, Mass., consigned on or about July 30, 1935, alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce from Beaver Meadow, Pa., by Dobrovolsky Bros., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in part of a filthy, decomposed, and putrid vegetable substance.

On September 23, 1935, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
