These cases involved apples which were contaminated with arsenic and lead.

On October 10 and October 15, 1935, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court libels praying seizure and condemnation of 207 bushels of apples at Chicago, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about October 3 and October 7, 1935, by the Great Lakes Fruit Industries, from Benton Harbor, Mich., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. A portion of the article was labeled, "Benton Center Branch of Great Lakes Fruit Ind. Inc. * * * Benton Harbor, Michigan"; the remainder was labeled: "Benton Center Fruit Assn. Benton Harbor, Mich."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, in amounts which might have rendered it injurious to health.

On December 19, 1935, the Great Lakes Fruit Industries, Inc., having appeared as claimant for 171 bushels of the product, and having admitted the allegations of the libel and consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the said 171 bushels be released to the claimant under bond, conditioned that they be rewashed in order to remove the deleterious substances. December 31, 1935, no claim having been entered for the remainder of the product, judgment of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction was entered.
