

Ozs. * * * Full Strength", or "Contents 1 Pt. 8 Ozs. * * * Full W'G'T. Guaranteed * * * reduced to 4%." The article in the 1½-pint bottles was alleged further to be misbranded in that it was food in package form and the quantity of contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the packages since the quantity stated was not correct.

On August 27, 1936, no claimant having appeared, judgments of condemnation were entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

26345. Adulteration of yeast. U. S. v. 40 Cases, Each Containing 50 Bricks of Yeast. Default decree of destruction. (F. & D. no. 87818. Sample no. 68761-B.)

This case involved yeast that was moldy, dirty, and contaminated with wild yeasts.

On June 16, 1936, the United States attorney for the Western District of Missouri, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 40 cases, each containing 50 bricks of yeast, at Kansas City, Mo., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about May 20, 1936, by Food Distributing, from Chicago, Ill., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: (Cases) "A1 Wt 52# * * * W. Meyers * * * Chicago, Illinois, * * * To Chas. Stodsky % U. S. Cold Storage, Kansas City, Missouri."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy and decomposed vegetable substance.

On July 21, 1936, no claimant having appeared and the court having found the said article adulterated, judgment was entered ordering that it be destroyed.

26346. Misbranding of dog and cat food. U. S. v. 30 Cases of Dog and Cat Food. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 37826. Sample no. 50002-B.)

This product was represented to contain 9.55 percent of protein, 2.10 percent of fat, and not more than 0.63 percent of crude fiber. It contained less protein and fat and more crude fiber than so represented, a sample having been found to contain 6.50 percent of protein, 1.35 percent of fat, and 1.76 percent of crude fiber.

On or about June 23, 1936, the United States attorney for the District of Maryland, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 30 cases of dog and cat food at Baltimore, Md., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about May 27, 1936, by the Atlas Canning Co., Inc., from Glendale, Long Island, N. Y., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Satin Quality Dog & Cat Food * * * Maryland Grocery Co. Baltimore, Md. Distributors."

The article was alleged to be misbranded in that the statements, "Protein 9.55 Min. Fat 2.10 Min. Crude Fibre 0.63 Max.", borne on the label, were false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser.

On November 20, 1936, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered, and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

26347. Misbranding of preserves, jam, and marmalade. U. S. v. 100 Cases of Preserves, Jam, and Marmalade. Consent decree of condemnation. Product released under bond to be relabeled. (F. & D. no. 37827. Sample no. 71162-B.)

This case involved miscellaneous preserves, jam, and marmalade that were short in weight.

On July 2, 1936, the United States attorney for the District of Nevada, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 100 cases of miscellaneous preserves, jam, and marmalade, at Reno, Nev., alleging that the articles had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about April 30, 1936, by the Tea Garden Products Co., from San Francisco, Calif., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act as amended. The articles were labeled in part: "Tea Garden Strawberry Preserves [etc.] Tea Garden Products Co., San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Net Weight 2 Lbs. 3 Ozs."

The articles were alleged to be misbranded in that the statement on the labels, "Net Weight 2 Lbs. 3 Ozs.", was false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser when applied to products that were short in weight; and in that the quantity of contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the packages, since the quantity stated was not correct.

On July 25, 1936, the Tea Garden Products Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the products be released under bond to be relabeled.

26348. Misbranding of chocolate-flavored malted milk. U. S. v. 17 Cases of Chocolate-Flavored Malted Milk. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 37828. Sample no. 72092-B.)

This case involved a product that contained much less malted milk than should be contained in chocolate-flavored malted milk, which it was represented to be.

On June 23, 1936, the United States attorney for the District of New Jersey, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 17 cases of chocolate-flavored malted milk at Newark, N. J., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about May 23, 1936, by Circle Foods, Inc., from New York, N. Y., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Bo-Peep' Chocolate Flavored Malted Milk * * * Circle Foods, Inc. New York, N. Y. Distributors."

The article was alleged to be misbranded in that the statements, "Chocolate Flavored Malted Milk * * * absolutely pure * * * guaranteed to comply with all Pure Food Laws. * * * Develops sturdy bodies * * * Rich in Vitamins", borne on the label, were false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser when applied to products containing only 15.6 percent of malted milk.

On August 24, 1936, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

26349. Adulteration and misbranding of dog and cat food. U. S. v. 200 Cases, et al., of Dog and Cat Food. Default decrees of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. nos. 37811, 37825, 37833, 37834, 37835, 37845, 37846. Sample nos. 70251-B, 70252-B, 70486-B, 70591-B, 70592-B, 70593-B, 73034-B, 73036-B.)

These cases involved dog and cat food that was decomposed and a part of which was short in weight.

On or about June 19, 1936, the United States attorney for the District of Maryland, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 620 cases of dog and cat food at Baltimore, Md. On June 11, June 29, and July 3, 1936, libels were filed against 480 cases of the product at Philadelphia, Pa., 87 cases at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and 27 cases at Scranton, Pa. It was alleged in the libels that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce between the dates of April 1 and June 6, 1936, in part by the Puro Pet Foods Co., Inc., from New York, N. Y., to Philadelphia, Wilkes-Barre, and Scranton, Pa.; in part by H. Reisler (% Rex Warehouse) from New York, N. Y., to Philadelphia, Pa.; in part by the Puro Pet Foods Co., Inc., from Philadelphia, Pa., to Baltimore, Md., and in part by the Doyle Packing Co. from Newark, N. J., to Philadelphia, Pa., and that it was adulterated in violation of the Food and Drugs Act, and that a portion thereof was also misbranded. The article was labeled in part: "Natural Brand Dog and Cat Food Contents 1 Lb. * * * Packed for Natural Food Product Co., New York City, U. S. A."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed animal and vegetable substance.

A portion of the article was alleged to be misbranded in that the statement on the label, "Contents 1 Lb.", was false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser when applied to a product in cans containing less than 1 pound; and in that it was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package since the statement made was incorrect.
