

26394. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 74 Baskets of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 38086. Sample nos. 8135-C, 8681-C.)

This case involved apples that were contaminated with lead and arsenic.

On July 15, 1936, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 74 baskets of apples at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about July 13, 1936, by Robert Y. Garrett, from Moorestown, N. J., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous ingredients, lead and arsenic, which might have rendered it injurious to health.

On August 18, 1936, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
