

Act as amended. It was labeled in part: "Giffi Say 'Jiffy' Pork and Beans Net Weight 1 Lb. [or "Net Contents 1 Lb. 15 Oz."] * * * cooked in a delicious Tomato Sauce and a generous quantity of pork. Packed and guaranteed by Giffi Foods Corporation San Francisco, California U. S. A."

The article was alleged to be misbranded in that the following statements and design borne on the label were false and misleading and tended to deceive and mislead the purchaser: "Net Weight 1 Lb. [or "Net Contents 1 Lb. 15 Oz."] * * * a generous quantity of pork. Pork and Beans [design of a dish of beans with a substantial amount of pork]." The article was alleged to be misbranded further in that it was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package since the quantity stated was not correct.

On April 20, 1937, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered, and it was ordered that the product be delivered to such public or health institution as might apply for it, or in the event of no such application, that it be destroyed.

27180. Adulteration of canned shrimp. U. S. v. 340 Cases of Canned Shrimp. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 38983. Sample nos. 21607-C to 21613-C, incl.)

This case involved a consignment of shrimp for export that was decomposed and packed in slack-filled containers.

On January 19, 1937, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 340 cases of canned shrimp at New Orleans, La., alleging that the article had been delivered to a common carrier on or about January 6, January 11, January 14, and January 16, 1937, by H. T. Cottam & Co., Inc., of New Orleans, La., for export to Venezuela, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The cans were labeled in part: "Barataria Brand Shrimp Packed For Export Only * * * Packed For H T Cottam & Co. Inc., New Orleans."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed animal substance.

It was alleged to be misbranded in that it was canned goods and fell below the standard of fill of container promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture for such canned food and its package or label did not bear a plain or conspicuous statement indicating that it fell below the prescribed standard.

On May 14, 1937, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

M. L. WILSON, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

This product was partially decomposed.

On January 25, 1937, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 50 cases of canned shrimp at New Orleans, La., alleging that on or about January 21, 1937, C. D. Hoy, New Orleans, La., delivered the product to a common carrier for export to Panama, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Barataria Shrimp * * * Q. & S. Brand Packed Expressly for and guaranteed by Quong Sun Co. Inc., New Orleans, La."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed animal substance.

On May 14, 1937, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
