

29960. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 80 Crates of Apples. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. No. 44608. Sample No. 54016-D.)

This product was contaminated with arsenic and lead.

On November 23, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 80 crates of apples at East Peoria, Ill.; alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about November 17, 1938, from Fenntville, Mich., by Joe H. Ritschel to himself at East Peoria, Ill.; and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous or deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On January 5, 1939, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.
