

1723. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. The Eureka Creamery. Plea of guilty. Fine, $100. (F. D. C. No. 2930. Sample Nos. 34152-E, 34164-E.)

On February 20, 1941, the United States attorney for the District of South Dakota filed an information against the Eureka Creamery, a corporation at Eureka, S. Dak., alleging shipment on or about September 17 and 21, 1940, from the State of South Dakota into the State of New York of quantities of butter that was adulterated. The article was labeled in part: "Creamery Butter Distributed by Zimmer and Dunkak Inc. New York, N. Y."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that a valuable constituent, milk fat, had been in part omitted therefrom; and in that a product which contained less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat had been substituted for butter.

On April 7, 1941, a plea of guilty was entered on behalf of the defendant and the court imposed a fine of $100.

1724. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. North American Creameries, Inc. Plea of guilty. Fine, $45. (F. D. C. No. 2942. Sample Nos. 10309-E, 33352-E, 33355-E.)

On June 23, 1941, the United States attorney for the District of Minnesota filed an information against North American Creameries, Inc., Paynesville, Minn., alleging shipment on or about August 23, 1939, and August 19 and 21, 1940, from the State of Minnesota into the State of New York of quantities of butter that was adulterated. The article was labeled in part: "Foremost Sales Co. Inc. * * * New York" or "Breakstone Bros. Distributors New York N. Y."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that a valuable constituent, milk fat, had been in whole or in part omitted therefrom; and in that a product which contained less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat had been substituted for butter.

On July 2, 1941, the defendant having entered a plea of guilty, the court imposed a fine of $15 on each of three counts of the information, totaling $45.

1725. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. Arthur D. Gimer (Renwick Community Creamery). Plea of guilty. Fine, $25 and costs. (F. D. C. No. 4126. Sample No. 31659-E.)

On June 19, 1941, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Iowa filed an information against Arthur D. Gimer, trading as Renwick Community Creamery at Renwick, Iowa, alleging shipment on or about January 11, 1941, from the State of Iowa into the State of Illinois, of a quantity of butter that was adulterated in that a valuable constituent, milk fat, had been in part omitted therefrom, and in that a product containing less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat had been substituted in whole or in part for butter.

On June 19, 1941, the defendant entered a plea of guilty and the court imposed a fine of $25 with costs.

1726. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. Spring Valley Butter Co. Plea of guilty. Fine, $30 and costs. (F. D. C. No. 2940. Sample Nos. 16678-E, 16679-E, 16680-E.)

On March 13, 1941, the United States attorney for the Western District of Missouri filed an information against the Spring Valley Butter Co., a corporation, at Kansas City, Mo., alleging shipment on or about August 9 and 12, 1940, from the State of Missouri into the State of Kansas of quantities of butter which was adulterated. The article was labeled in part: "Daisy Maid Brand Country Roll [or "Monogram Creamery"] Butter The Cudahy Packing Co. Distributors."

It was alleged to be adulterated in that a valuable constituent, milk fat, had been in part omitted therefrom; and in that a product which contained less than 80 percent by weight of milk fat had been substituted for butter.

On March 21, 1941, a plea of guilty having been entered on behalf of the defendant, the court imposed a fine of $30 and costs.

1727. Adulteration of butter. U. S. v. 38 Cases of Butter. Consent decree of forfeiture and destruction. (F. D. C. No. 3665. Sample No. 39878-E.)

Examination of this product showed that it contained mold.

On January 6, 1941, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois filed a libel against 38 cases of butter at National Stock Yards, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped on or about December 31, 1940, in a truck of Armour & Co. from St. Louis, Mo., to Armour & Co., National Stock Yards; and charging that it was adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance. It was labeled in part: "One Pound Net Goldendale * * * Butter Armour Creameries Distributors."
