THE MINUTES OF THE PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE

American Academy of Medicine,

HELD IN

PHILADELPHIA, SEPT. 6, 1876.

A Letter of Invitation having been printed and distributed, during the early part of the American Centennial, advocating a higher standard of qualifications in the medical profession, and the organization of a society, college, or academy, whose foundation should be that of degrees conferred by respectable institutions of learning, the following gentlemen convened and held a meeting in the city of Philadelphia, September 6th, 1876, viz.: Prof. Traill Green, M. D., LL. D., Hon. Lewis H. Steiner, M. D., Edward H. M. Sell, M. D., William S. Stewart, M. D., R. Lowry Sibbet, M. D., R. Stansburry Sutton, M. D., E. B. Shapleigh, M. D., and Peter D. Keyser, M. D.

Dr. Green was called to the chair and Dr. Keyser was elected temporary Secretary.

The object of the meeting being stated, Dr. Sibbet read a paper on "The Necessity of an Organization which shall Encourage a Higher Standard of Qualifications in the Medical Profession."

Dr. Steiner also read a paper on "The Importance of the Study of Languages, Ancient and Modern, and of their Literature, to the Student of Medicine."

Dr. Sibbet presented and read several very encouraging letters from gentlemen not present, which had been read at an informal meeting the previous evening.

Dr. Steiner moved that a committee consisting of the chairman, Dr. Green, Dr. Sibbet and Dr. Keyser, be authorized to draught a Constitution and By-Laws, and to report the same at the next meeting for the government of the association, to be known as _____, which shall be composed of gentlemen in the profession, who have pursued regular courses of study in literary institutions before entering upon the study of medicine. Carried.

On motion of Dr. Keyser, the chairman, Dr. Traill Green, was elected President for the ensuing year. Dr. Sibbet moved that Dr. Steiner, Dr. Geo H. Larison, not present, Dr. Sell and Dr. Stewart be elected Vice-Presidents. Carried. Dr. Sibbet was elected Secretary.

On motion, it was agreed that the officers elected be considered a Board of Counsel, to co-operate and consult with the committee on Constitution and By-Laws in matters pertaining to the association.

Several names were suggested, as National Medical Society, American College of Physicians and Surgeons, and American Academy of Medicine; and, on motion of Dr Sutton, it was agreed to adjourn, to meet in the city of New York on the second Tuesday of September, 1877.

THE MINUTES OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE
SECOND ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
American Academy of Medicine,
HELD IN
NEW YORK, SEPT. 11, 1877.

The American Academy of Medicine met in the Halls of the New York Academy of Medicine, in the city of New York, Tuesday, September 11th, 1877, at 3 o'clock p. m. The President, Dr. Traill Green, occupied the chair, supported by the Vice-Presidents, Dr. Lewis H. Steiner, Dr. George H. Larison, Dr. Edward H. M. Sell and Dr. William S. Stewart. The Secretary, Dr. R. L. Sibbet, was assisted by Dr. P. D. Keyser. Dr. Sell delivered an Address of Welcome, after which the President delivered the Annual Address.

A few complimentary remarks being made by gentlemen in attendance, the names of the Fellows of the Academy, including those whom the officers received, were called. The minutes of the first annual meeting were then read and adopted.

A letter from Dr. Charles M. Allin, President of the Medical Journal Association, of the city of New York, inviting the Fellows of the Academy to visit their Reading Rooms, was read; also a letter from Dr. Samuel S. Purple, President of the New York Academy of Medicine, extending to the Fellows of the Academy the privileges of their Library. Prof. Frank H. Hamilton invited the Fellows of the Academy to visit the Bellevue Hospital, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock p. m. These invitations were cordially accepted and the thanks of the Academy tendered. On motion, the Academy adjourned to hold an executive session in the evening at 7½ o'clock.

SECOND SESSION.

The Academy convened according to adjournment, with the President in the chair. A letter of congratulation from Dr. Elisha Harris,

Secretary of the American Public Health Association, was read, after which the report of the committee on Constitution and By-Laws was accepted, and the committee discharged.

The articles and sections of the Constitution were then taken up, amended and adopted, seriatim. On motion, the Academy adjourned to meet the following morning at 10 o'clock, and at the same time accepted an invitation to a handsome collation in another part of the building.

THIRD SESSION.

The Academy convened Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, with the President in the chair, and at once proceeded to the consideration of the By-Laws as reported by the committee. These were amended and adopted, seriatim; and afterwards the Constitution and By-Laws were both adopted as a whole.

The Secretary then presented the proposal of Dr. J. E. Clawson, and also that of Dr. William Govan, for Fellowship in the Academy. Both were unanimously elected by ballot; and Dr. Govan, being present, was invited to take part in the proceedings.

The election of officers for the ensuing year being in order, Dr. Keyser moved that a committee of three be appointed to present candidates for the several offices. Carried. The President appointed Drs. Keyser, Stewart and Sell, who reported as follows:

President—Prof. Frank H. Hamilton, M. D., LL. D., New York, N. Y.

Vice-Presidents—Hon. Lewis H. Steiner, M. D., Frederick, Md.; Stephen Wickes, M. D., Orange, N. J.; Benjamin Lee, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Prof. Henry G. Piffard, M. D., New York, N. Y.

Secretary—R. Lowry Sibbet, M. D., Carlisle, Pa.

Assistant Secretary—Neilson A. Baldwin, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Treasurer—Edward H. M. Sell, M. D., New York, N. Y.

The candidates were unanimously elected by ballot and the committee discharged.

The Secretary, Dr. Sibbet, acting as Treasurer during the past year, requested that a committee be appointed to audit his account; whereupon the President appointed Drs. Keyser, Stewart and Sell, who reported as follows:

On motion, the report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The President appointed Dr. P. D. Keyser as a member of the Council for the ensuing year. On motion of Dr. Keyser the President appointed Dr. Steiner a committee of one to prepare and report at the next annual meeting a form of certificate, as provided for in Art. IX of the Constitution. On motion of Dr. Sibbet the President appointed Dr. Keyser a committee of one to prepare and present at the next annual meeting, a design for the seal of the Academy.

The time for adjournment having arrived, the President suggested that Drs. Sell and Stewart conduct the President elect, Dr. Hamilton, to the chair, who, before taking his seat, delivered a most encouraging extemporaneous address.

Dr Stewart moved that the next annual meeting be held at Easton, Pa., on the third Tuesday of September, 1878, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Carried.

The Secretary then reported the names of the Fellows present during the meeting, and registered as follows:
