

School of Veterinary Medicine
And Surgery,

ESTABLISHED IN BOSTON 1849.

The Study of Veterinary Medicine
AND SURGERY.

The undersigned is prepared to receive, as pupils, any number of persons desirous of acquiring knowledge in the PRINCIPLES and PRACTICE of Veterinary Science. Unusual facilities for practice, dissection and demonstration, are furnished, and the pupils can form a class at any season of the year.

TERMS OF TUITION.

For one session, occupying a period of three or four months, (at the option of the student)—One Hundred Dollars.

For two sessions, occupying a period of from eight to twelve months—Two Hundred Dollars.

The above charges are exclusive of board and lodging. Certificates of qualification are furnished free of charge.

GEO. H. DADD, V. S. Principal.

