Wit catches of wit, as fire of fire.

A CARD.

We present our thanks for the liberal patronage hitherto bestowed on our Preparations.

They have stood the test of time and competition, established a universal reputation for purity and efficacy, and won the highest awards for their wherever exhibited. We shall maintain the standard quality and excellence at any cost, and trust that their merit and attractiveness will continue to elicit the favor of the public.

STANDARD QUALITY

We refrain from decrying other manufactures, but, owing to the unprincipled habit of many, in recommending inferior articles, which may afford them larger profits, we caution all persons to observe that our name accompanies the wrapper and label of all of our Standard Preparations.

Our name is also blown in the glass.

II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, July 18, visible in Africa and South-western Asia.

III. A partial eclipse of the Moon, December 27-28, visible in the Pacific Ocean.

VENUS will be visible in the evening until its inferior conjunction, Sept. 23, being at its greatest brilliancy August 19. It is visible after Sept. 13 in the morning, reaching its greatest brilliancy October 10 and being at its greatest western elongation December 3.

MARS will be visible in the morning until November 12, and in the evening the remainder of the year.

JUPITER will be visible in the evening until February 7, and in the morning until August 13, then in the evening for the remainder of the year. It is in quadrature June 1 and November 16, when it is in the constellation Aquarius.

SATURN will be visible in the evening until March 16, then in the morning until October 5, and in the evening the rest of the year. It will remain in the constellation Pisces.

URANUS will be visible in the morning until February 20, then in the evening until August 27, then in the morning the rest of the year. It remains in the constellation Leo.

NEPTUNE will be visible in the evening until April 19, in the morning until November 2, then in the evening the rest of the year. It will be in the constellation Aries.

Uranus at opposition is within reach of the naked eye, if its place is well known. Neptune can be seen with the aid of an opera glass. For the benefit of those who might care to see Uranus, the following are its positions:

	R. A.	Dec. North.
April 1.....	10 h. 12 m.	12° 16'
May 1.....	10 h. 17 m.	12° 10'
June 1.....	10 h. 11 m.	12° 5'

These positions laid down on any star map, will locate the planet with reference to the neighboring stars, and then it may be found easily with an opera glass, and when found can be seen by the unaided eye.

In the same way the position of Neptune will enable the possessors of good glasses to see it. Its positions are:

	R. A.	Dec. North.
Feb. 1.....	2 h. 21 m.	12° 12'
March 1.....	2 h. 13 m.	12° 27'

To crush the mountain dew-drops, soon to melt
On the flower's breast; as if she felt
That flowers themselves, whate'er their hue,
With all their fragrance, all their glistening,
Call to the heart for inward listening.

Perfect Purity and Great Strength.

JONAS WHITCOMB'S
—1867—
REMEDY

FOR ASTHMA,
ROSE COLD,
HAY FEVER.

—1868 & Co. 87—
The signal success which has attended the use of this Medicine, has induced the proprietors to publish some account of its wonderful properties, and to offer it for the benefit of those who are afflicted with the above named painful diseases.

DIRECTIONS.

Whenever Asthmatic symptoms appear, such as short and difficult respiration, an adult may take a table-spoonful of the mixture, (in very obstinate cases two or even three table-spoonfuls may be taken at once,) with sugar and water, before going to bed, before breakfast, and before dinner. The patient, however, must use judgment, as the case may require. If taken when the symptoms first appear, one dose will afford immediate relief.

Persons who suffer from periodical Colds and Catarrh, peculiar to the season of roses and hay-making, will always find relief in the use of this Mixture; and if taken in season, it will prevent these disagreeable ills.

THIS PREPARATION IS EXCLUSIVELY THE PROPERTY OF JOSEPH BURNETT & CO.

To whom orders may be addressed.

Entered according to an act of Congress, in the year 1866,
BY JOSEPH BURNETT,
In the Clerk's Office of the Dist. Court of the Dist. of Massachusetts.

A perfect hair-dressing—Burnett's Cocaine.

Is superior to all Animal Oils in the following particulars :

It is a cooling Vegetable Oil,—

Animal Oils are heating.

It has great penetrating affinity for the human skin,—

Animal Oils, as bear's grease, have little or none.

Its rapid absorption leaves little residue on the surface,—

Animal Oils do not possess this peculiarity in any great degree.

It does not quickly become rancid,—

Animal Oils do.

It imparts glossiness by its penetrating power, rather than by outward lustre,—

The contrary is true with regard to Animal Oils.

PREMATURE LOSS OF THE HAIR, which is so common nowadays, may be entirely prevented by the use of

BURNETT'S COCAINE.

It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handfuls, and has never failed to arrest its decay, and to promote a healthy and vigorous growth. It is at the same time unrivalled as a dressing for the hair. A single application will render it soft and glossy for several days.

We pronounce Burnett's Preparations excellent. — Australia News.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE,

For promoting the growth of and beautifying the hair, and rendering it dark and glossy, holds, in a liquid form, a large proportion of deodorized prepared expressly for this purpose.

COCOA-NUT OIL,

The inventors of Cocoaine, knowing that Animal Oils—Bear's Grease, Pomades, etc.—induce heat rather than alleviate it, turned their attention and pharmaceutical science towards Vegetable Oils as the basis of a medicament to promote the growth and preserve the beauty of the hair.

Many persons abuse this delicate and beautiful ornament by burning it with alcoholic washes and plastering it with grease, which has no affinity for the skin, and is not absorbed. Burnett's Cocoaine, a compound of Cocoa-Nut Oil, etc., is unrivalled as a dressing for the hair, is readily absorbed, and is peculiarly adapted to its various conditions.

[Extracts from authentic writings in regard to Cocoa-Nut Oil.]

"The use of this oil as a cosmetic has been universal among all the people of India for centuries. No other preparation of art could give that elegant suppleness of limb, that glowing smoothness of skin, and luxuriance and abundance of hair, which have so often been the admiration of travelers in those remote and interesting regions."—Selected.

Marsden, speaking of the people of Sumatra, says: "Their hair is strong, and of a shining black, the improvement of both which qualities it probably owes in a great measure to the constant use of Cocoa-Nut Oil."
—Marsden, p. 40.

Oriental Tooth-Wash is not loudly advertised, but loudly praised.

As a wash for the complexion, has no equal. It is distinguished for its cooling and soothing properties, removing Tan, Sunburn, Freckles, Redness and Roughness of the Skin, etc., curing Chapped Hands, and allaying the irritation caused by the bites of mosquitoes and other annoying insects. The Kalliston is highly recommended.

Apply the Kalliston thoroughly with a sponge or soft brush. For the Hair it should be applied night and morning.

The greatest efficacy of the COCOAINE is best secured by a perfect cleansing, before its application, of the hair and scalp (for which purpose the KALLISTON is recommended, because its ingredients are co-operative with those of COCOAINE), under which circumstances it allays irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff, and invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree.

JONAS WHITCOMB'S REMEDY
For Asthma,
ROSE COLD AND HAY FEVER.

The success which has attended the use of this preparation makes it worthy the attention of all who suffer from these distressing complaints.

The late Jonas Whitcomb, of Boston, visited Europe a few years since for the benefit of his health, which was impaired by frequent attacks of Spasmodic Asthma. While under the treatment of an eminent German physician, who became interested in his case, his asthma disappeared; he procured the recipe which had done so much for him. Within the past few years this Remedy has been used in thousands of the worst cases with astonishing and uniform success. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever.

TESTIMONIALS.

ST. LOUIS, November 10, 1877.

Messrs. J. BURNETT & Co: The relief the Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy afforded me was perfect; in fact, I have not had a bad night since taking it. This complaint has troubled me for a long time, and I have tried many things, but in no case found any relief until your Remedy came to hand. I gave a bottle to a lady who was suffering from the malady, and she found great relief in its use. I most cheerfully recommend it to any one troubled with Hay Fever or Asthma, for it is the only remedy ever used by me with any good effects.

Yours truly, WM. T. MASON.

Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co:

After being troubled with the Asthma for many years, I was induced to try Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy, which gave me immediate relief. When I felt a paroxysm coming on I would take the prescribed dose, and a good night's rest would be the result. It certainly is a wonderful medicine.

BURNETT'S KALLISTON.

No part of our physical organization is more worthy of careful attention than the skin. Its delicate structure and mechanism render it sensitive to the slightest obstructions, whether arising from sunburn, from dust, or the changing air and wind. BURNETT'S KALLISTON is prepared expressly to remove all these; and the result of its use is a perfectly healthy action, and a softness and loveliness of texture that health alone will induce.

Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., Boston, Mass.:

Gentlemen,—I have used your KALLISTON for (10) ten years, and with the most delightful results. Before using the KALLISTON my face was red and puckered, owing to the pores being stopped through a fever. But now my skin is fair and of a satin-like smoothness, and I certainly think the KALLISTON is the cause of all the improvement.

Yours very sincerely,

Mrs. KATE CRAYFORD,
North Moulton, Pa.

Extract from a lady's letter to Joseph Burnett & Co. during the past summer:

"I have used all my KALLISTON since traveling in Switzerland, and can find nothing to replace it. In coming in from the mountain winds, with face burning, a single application relieves me instantaneously. Can I get it on this side of the Atlantic, and where, or would it be too expensive to send me at Paris?"

Intimate reciprocal relations exist between health and a pure state of the skin. Cleanse the skin thoroughly by a medium which does not irritate, and stimulate it to a healthy action. When the pores are opened the skin becomes a vehicle to carry off diseases, instead of a trap to catch and hold them.

Whitcomb's Remedy always relieves, and seldom fails to cure.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23, 1877.

Gentlemen,—Having used your Cocaine for the past ten or twelve years, I take pleasure in giving as my opinion that no preparation made in this country will keep the hair so soft and glossy, and, at the same time, allay all irritation of the scalp. It will most effectually remove dandruff and prevent the hair from falling out.

CHICAGO, May 12, 1871.

Since the recent use of your Cocaine, my previously bald head has been covered by a luxuriant growth of hair. I had always esteemed your preparation as a dressing, knowing many persons who regarded it very highly as such, but never before knew how valuable it was as a restorative.

J. G. LEWIS.

Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., Boston, Mass.:

Gentlemen,—I wish to say a word or two in regard to your Cocaine for the hair. My wife has used the Cocaine over twenty (20) years; two or three times she has lost a large part of her hair (from sickness), and each time it was restored to its full quantity and beauty by a liberal use of your Cocaine only, and to-day not one in a thousand has such magnificent hair as she has, I believe entirely from its use. I regard it as the best hair preparation in use.

CAUTION TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Owing to the increased and constantly increasing cost of vanilla beans used in the manufacture of Extract Vanilla, spurious compounds are being thrown upon the market, purporting to be pure vanilla, but prepared principally from Tonqua beans. This nauseating substitute costs the manufacturer less than one-twentieth part as much as the genuine vanilla bean. It can readily be detected by its odor. It is used principally by tobacconists for perfuming snuff and cigars, and was never intended to be used as a flavoring for the various compounds prepared for the human stomach.

Housekeepers who study their interests will demand of their grocer strictly pure vanilla only, and refuse to accept of an adulterated compound, which would give the dealer a better profit.

BURNETT'S EXTRACT OF VANILLA

is prepared from selected vanilla beans, and is warranted entirely free from Tonqua or other deleterious substances.

All Cooking Extracts, such as Lemon, Vanilla, Rose, Almond, Celery, etc., prepared at the laboratory of Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston, can be relied upon for purity and strength. For upwards of twenty-two years they have been used by the leading hotels and the best families throughout the United States, and are sold by all first-class grocers and druggists.

LOSS OF HAIR.

PHILADELPHIA, April 16, 1877.

Gentlemen.—One year ago my hair commenced falling out, until I was almost bald. After using your Cocaine for a few months I have a thick growth of new hair.

ALEXANDER HENRY,
814 East Girard Avenue.

BANGOR, March 3, 1893.

Your "Cocaine" is the only dressing for the hair used in my family for the last eight years. It not only stopped my wife's hair from coming out, but increased its growth. I am also under obligations to this same "Cocaine" for saving my own hair, which was very fast coming out previous to using this valuable preparation.

J. C. MITCHELL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19, 1878.

Mr. JOSEPH BURNETT, Boston, Mass.:

Dear Sir,—Your Cocaine is the only dressing for the hair used in our family for the past (15) fifteen years. It has stopped my hair from coming out repeatedly, and now, though nearly fifty years of age, have not a single gray hair.

Mrs. J. E. COLLINS.

Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & Co., Boston:

GENTS,—Your agent in this city, on hearing of my case, and my utter unbelief in all hair preparations, sent me a bottle of Cocaine, begging me to give it a fair trial. I had lost all my hair in a malarial fever some three years before, and was obliged to wear a wig. Nearly seven months ago I began using the Cocaine, and now have between two and three inches of as fine, sturdy hair as I ever saw. I think the Cocaine is wonderful, and I have brought it many customers.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.

J. BURNETT, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—For some time past I have been using your Cocosine, and think it far preferable to anything I have ever used for the hair. If my indorsement is of value, you are at perfect liberty to use it.

Respectfully yours, FRANK LESLIE.

ENGLAND.

CROWN BANK, STOWMARKET,
SUFFOLK, ENGLAND, May 2, 1870. }

Messrs. BURNETT & Co., Boston, Mass.:

Gentlemen.—When a resident on your side of the water I was in the habit of using your preparation for the hair, called COCOAINE. I brought some home with me, when on a visit, which was used by some of the members of my family, and so much approved, that on my return to America I sent them back a small stock of it.

My family are now quite out of it. We want some badly. It is the best thing ever used, and could it become generally known here, the sale would be immense. Please inform us if you have an agent in England.

I remain, gentlemen, truly yours, H. B. R.

I use some of your Cocosine. It is good. I wish for twenty or thirty bottles and take to Japan.

NEW YORK SUPERIOR COURT.

AT THE SPECIAL TERM, April, 1859.

PIERREPONT, Justice, the following decision was given:

"It appeared before me, upon the trial of this cause, that the plaintiff, in November, 1836, compounded, from Coconut Oil and other ingredients, a mixture to be used upon the human hair; that he devised a name never before used, by which to mark his said compound, to wit:—the name or word 'Cocoaine;' that he forthwith published in all his circulars, and in all the principal newspapers of the country, and especially in the city of New York, where the defendants reside, that he had adopted the above-mentioned name or title as a 'Trade-Mark,' to secure the public and the proprietors against imposition, and that all unauthorized use of this trade-mark would be prosecuted.

"About two years after the first introduction of this article by the plaintiffs, the defendants, residents of the city of New York, commenced the sale of a somewhat similar preparation, put up in bottles not unlike those of the plaintiffs'.

"The proof is clear that the plaintiff had, for nearly two years, advertised his mixture in nearly every newspaper in this city, and had published in the same papers that he had adopted the word 'Cocoaine' as his Trade-Mark. The defendant was himself a witness, and he did not suggest that these notices had not been brought home to his knowledge; the conclusion is irresistible, that he was aware of their publication, and he intentionally adopted 'Cocoaine' as a close imitation of 'Cocoaine,' and for the purpose of deriving profit from the simulated trade-mark.

"The plaintiff is entitled to judgment, and an injunction must issue."

NEW YORK COURT OF APPEALS.

At the July Term, 1857, DAVIES, Chief Justice, the following FINAL decision was given:—

"Upon the facts found by the Court, the right of the plaintiffs to the relief granted is clear. The plaintiffs have adopted, appropriated, and used a certain trade-mark. This has become their property; and for its protection the plaintiffs are entitled to invoke the aid of courts of justice. We have the ascertained fact that defendants are using a spurious imitation of the plaintiffs' trade-mark. This they cannot be permitted to do.

"The judgment of the Superior Court of New York was correct, and should be affirmed, with costs."
