UNITED STATES Medicine Warehouse.

John F. Henry, 8 COLLEGE PLACE,

[Successor to Demas Barnes & Co., 21 Park Row,]

NEW YORK.

I shall endeavor to keep always on hand, complete and full stocks of all PROPRIETARY MEDICINES, MINERAL WATERS, DRUGGISTS' SUNDRIES, FANCY GOODS and PERFUMERY, so that orders for these goods, whether in large or small quantities, may be filled as soon as received.

The large extent of my purchases and the numerous specialties of which I have exclusive control, enable me to sell to the wholesale trade at proprietors' prices when large lots are ordered.

TO THE TRADE.

I have pleasure in again presenting my catalogue of Medicines, Perfumery, Mineral Waters, Fancy Goods, &c. I have, in this issue, omitted prices for various reasons. First, the frequent changes made by proprietors, prevent the possibility of any quotations being given that could be reliable for any length of time. Secondly, many goods are imported from countries where the currency is in gold, and the slightest variation of the gold market at once affects prices here; and Thirdly, it is impossible to give a list of prices in a book that is sent alike to retailer and wholesaler, that could be considered as best prices to large dealers, or even as fair prices for dealers in a small way, yet who are entitled to low rates, from the fact that they are prompt and reliable.

It has been my aim from the outset to build up and establish a trade in Proprietary Medicines that should rank second to no other establishment of the kind anywhere, not only in extent of business done, but in the amount and variety of stock, the careful attention to the requirements of customers, and a determination to keep only genuine and meritorious articles, thus establishing confidence and giving tone and character to the business.

My stock of Medicines embraces some two thousand different proprietary articles, so that I am enabled to fill almost every order as soon as received; and my stock of Fancy Goods, Druggists' Sundries, &c., comprises nearly as great a variety of items; and to this branch of my business I beg to call the special attention of the trade, as it may not be generally known that I keep so large a stock of these goods, the greater part of which are direct importations from England, Germany and France. Druggists will find all they usually require in this line of goods in my Fancy Goods Department.

I have engaged competent, careful and experienced men to superintend each department of my business, and have adopted and carried into effect the most practical, simple and systematic arrangements, so that every order, as soon as received, may have the most careful attention and the utmost despatch.

I have adopted all available checks against the possibility of errors in filling orders; yet it sometimes happens that they will occur, and in all such cases I shall be most happy to correct them as soon as my attention is called to them; but I cannot bind myself to be responsible for goods damaged, or taken out of cases after they leave my store, and are receipted for by transportation companies in good order. Such claims must be made against carriers of the goods. Nor can I fill orders at "previous prices," nor govern myself by the quotations of others. I sell from my own stock only, and at prices based on what the goods cost me.

I shall be most happy to give quotations by letter, subject to the fluctuations of the market, and I flatter myself that I shall be able to give more advantageous prices and more satisfactory attention to orders than any other House in the United States.

It cannot be expected, however, that long orders, containing many things which must necessarily be procured outside, can be filled the same day as received; nevertheless my customers may rest assured that there will be no unnecessary delay, and that every pains will be taken to execute their orders satisfactorily.

I keep Genuine Goods only, and will at all times oppose the introduction and sale of counterfeit articles. My customers may therefore rely on getting goods that are guaranteed to be genuine in all cases, as I will neither countenance nor recognize any fraudulent attempt to imitate the trade marks of others under any circumstances.

JOHN F. HENRY,

8 COLLEGE PLACE, NEW YORK.

[Successor to DEMAS BARNES & CO., 21 Park Row.]

I have to request that parties who are unknown to me or who are not well rated in the books of the mercantile agencies, would remit cash with their orders, or send satisfactory city references, upon the receipt of which their orders shall have immediate attention.

I shall not hold myself responsible for the execution of any orders not taken by my authorized agents, nor even then, should there be any doubt as to the standing of the parties ordering; nor shall I consider myself bound to fill orders given for goods that suddenly advance when such orders are limited to the price previous to the advance. At the same time I shall endeavor to give fair market prices at all times, so as to make it to the advantage of purchasers to give me their orders.

When desired, I will effect insurance on goods shipped to order. A large proportion of medicines is put up in glass, and liable to breakage in transit. By careful packing, however, the probabilities of breakage are very materially lessened. The packing of every article is examined by two competent men, whose initials are attached to the invoice. Bitters, liquors, etc., are sometimes abstracted en route. These are unavoidable accidents, for which I can in no way be held responsible; your recourse is upon the Transportation Co., or an Insurance account.

Let each order, if three a week, state shipping directions in full.

Orders received for goods not in stock, etc., will be filled to the best of my ability as your agent, and being paid for by me cannot be exchanged, or prices abated.

I charge for Cartage, and for packed Cases. When original packages can be used, no charge is made.

I much prefer remittances, and save considerable expense thereby. If you do not remit, drafts are always made at sight. I cannot control the Bank through which they will be presented.

I am compelled to make all Bills NET CASH, FUNDS PAR IN NEW YORK, on presentation of Invoice, or the unqualified acceptance of Drafts, with exchange.

I respectfully solicit the trade of all dealers, both wholesale and retail, and shall endeavor to give the utmost satisfaction in prices and in promptly filling their orders.

The very large capital I have invested in this business enables me to carry heavier stocks than any other competing house; and as no European house makes so extensive a specialty of proprietary medicines, it will at once be apparent that this is the LEADING HOUSE OF THE KIND IN THE WORLD.

Trusting, therefore, that you will find it to your advantage to favor me with your orders.

I am,

Your respectfully,

8 College Place, N. Y., July 1st, 1871.

JOHN F. HENRY.
