

FRELIGH'S REMEDY

POSITIVELY CURES

Neuralgia,
Rheumatism,
Gout, and
Nervous Headache.

It is an internal remedy, carefully prepared according to the prescription of an eminent physician, and the most aggravated forms of these painful diseases, for it completely eradicates the cause from the system.

NEVER FAILS TO CURE

READ A FEW TESTIMONIALS.

PARTIAL PARALYSIS.

APPLGATE, JACKSON CO., OREGON, }
March 25, '76. }

S. O. A. MURPHY:

Sir:—Freligh's Remedy came safe to hand, and an elderly man who was affected with partial paralysis and pains in his joints has been so far benefited by a few doses that he deposited a dollar with me this morning to get him a bottle, and I enclose you a two dollar bill for two bottles. Yours respectfully,

EDWARD WILSON.

IT IS INVALUABLE.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., Oct. 31, 1877.

S. O. A. MURPHY, Esq.: As I have said to you heretofore that your medicine was invaluable, I repeat again that no medicine I ever used proved so much use to me as Freligh's Remedy for Rheumatism. * * * * I was a great sufferer and could not sleep till I found your medicine, and since then and immediately after using it I have slept well and sweetly, and cannot say too much in favor of your remedy. GEORGE C. TOBEY.

Sold by druggists. Price One Dollar.

WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT IT.

WALHALLA, S. C., Feb. 15, 1879.

S. O. A. MURPHY:

DEAR SIR:—Enclosed please find five dollars. * * * In fact, I would not now be without it, as it is invaluable for those who are afflicted with the diseases which it is stated to cure. Yours very truly,

REV. J. C. McMAHON.

USED TO SUFFER TERRIBLY.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 17, 1878.

S. O. A. MURPHY:

DEAR SIR:—* * * I used to suffer terribly from Neuralgia in my teeth, and nothing would relieve me until some one recommended your remedy. Since then I have been all right, and whenever an attack seems to be coming, I can check it instantly.

G. A. QUEZADA.

A THOROUGH TEST FOR HEADACHE.

ITHACA, N. Y., Aug. 20, 1878.

S. O. A. MURPHY:

DEAR SIR:—Mr. Stamp and ourselves have given it a thorough test for Headache. It does the business well. We have let a good many try it and it gives satisfaction. Yours respectfully,

H. K. & M. C. JONES.

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

FOND DU LAC, Wis., March 6, 1878.

Mr. S. O. A. MURPHY:—* * * We have so far introduced it (the Remedy) only to some of our wealthiest families, and they all say it has no equal for Neuralgia and Rheumatism. We feel confident that we will have a big sale for the Remedy.

Yours respectfully,
DITTEY & MITCHELL, Druggists.

CURES CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.]

643 BROADWAY, N. Y., March 19, 1874.

S. O. A. MURPHY:

DEAR SIR:—* * * I am happy to say that your invaluable remedy has been of the greatest service to my wife, who has been suffering for some weeks from Chronic Rheumatism. She has used two bottles only, and is now able to move around a little. Please send by bearer two bottles more. Yours, etc.,

WILLIAM MOORE.

"WILL INTRODUCE IT IN PRACTICE."

ABERDEEN, Miss., March 14, 1874.

S. O. A. MURPHY:

Enclosed you will find five dollars, for value of which please send Freligh's Remedy. I suffered very much from Neuralgia while in New York recently, and found myself much benefited by it. I would like to introduce it into my practice. Respectfully,

W. A. EVANS, M. D.

If your druggist does not keep Freligh's Remedy it will be forwarded upon the receipt of one dollar, by

S. O. A. MURPHY, General Agent, 14 Park Place, New York.

"AS YOU ARE MY COUSIN, I DON'T MIND LETTING YOU INTO THE SECRET OF MAMMA'S ETERNAL YOUTH WITH ALL HER FORTY AND ODD YEARS.- SHE MAKES FREE USE OF LAIRD'S BLOOM OF YOUTH

"I WONDER HOW MRS. TONES MANAGES TO KEEP HER COMPLEXION SO PURE AND FRESH, EVERY NIGHT OF HER LIFE SHE IS OUT AT DINNERS OR BALLS, AND IN CONSEQUENCE MUST BE VERY FATIGUED. BESIDES WHEN SHE CAME BACK FROM THE COUNTRY HER FACE WAS VERY MUCH TANNED AND FRECKLED."-"WHY, MY DEAR, SHE USES LAIRD'S BLOOM OF YOUTH THAT IS HER SECRET."

I WAS DREADFULLY AFRAID THAT HORRID FEVER WOULD RUIN MY COMPLEXION FOR LIFE; BUT LAIRD'S BLOOM OF YOUTH HAS SETTLED THAT QUESTION WITH A LOVELY SUCCESS.

ALL women know that it is beauty, rather than genius which all generations of men have worshipped in the sex. Can it be wondered at, then, that so much of a woman's time and attention should be directed to the means of developing and preserving that beauty? Women know, too, that when men speak of the intellect of women, they speak critically, tamely, coolly; but when they speak of the charms of a beautiful woman, both their language and their eyes kindle with enthusiasm, which shows them to be profoundly, if not, indeed, ridiculously in earnest. It is part of the natural sagacity of women to perceive all this, and therefore employ every allowable art to become the goddess of that adoration. Preach to the contrary as we may, against the arts employed by women for enhancing their beauty, there still stands the eternal fact, that the world does not prefer the society of an ugly woman of genius to that of a beauty of less intellectual acquirements.

The world has yet allowed no higher mission to woman than to be beautiful, and it would seem that the ladies of the present age are carrying this idea of the world to greater extremes than ever, for all women now to whom nature has denied the talismanic power of beauty, supply the deficiency by the use of a most delightful toilet article known as the "Bloom of Youth," which has lately been introduced into this country by GEORGE W. LAIRD; a delicate beautifier, which smooths out all indentations, tans freckles, furrows, scars, and imparts alabaster skins, blooming cheeks, and clear, smooth, soft, and beautiful skin. With the assistance of this new American trick of a lady's toilet, female beauty is destined to play a larger part in the admiration of a man, and the ambition of women, than all the arts employed since her creation.
