

OSWALD THEODORE AVERY

Place and Date of Birth:

Halifax, Nova Scotia, October 21, 1877

Degrees:

A.B., Colgate University, 1900
M.D., Columbia University, 1904

Honorary: Sc. D., Colgate, 1921
L.L.D., McGill University, 1935
Sc.D., New York University 1947

Awards:

Paul Ehrlich Gold Medal
Joseph Mather Smith Prize, Columbia University
John Philips Memorial Award, American College of Physicians
Kober Medal, Association of American Physicians
Medal of the New York Academy of Medicine
Lasker Award, American Public Health
Association 1947
Copley Medal 1945 of The Royal Society of London
The Charles Mickle Fellowship Univ. of Toronto 1946

Positions held:

Hoagland Laboratory, Brooklyn, Associate Director,
1907-1913
Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research:
Assistant, Department of Hospital, Oct., 1913
Associate, " " " July 1, 1915
Associate Member July 1, 1919
Member July 1, 1923
Emeritus Member July 1, 1943

Organizations:

Det. Norsk Videnskaps Akademi Oslo, 1932
Correspondant étranger Academie Royal de Medicine
de Belgique, 1933 Foreign Member
National Academy of Sciences, 1935
Foreign Member, Royal Society of London, 1944
New York Academy of Sciences, Honorary Member, 1944
Association of American Physicians
American Association of Pathologists and Immunologists (President, 1934)
American Association of Immunologists (Pres., 1929)
American Public Health Association
Harvey Society
Society for Experimental Pathology
American Association for the Advancement of Science
Society of American Bacteriologists, Honorary
Member 1944
Consultant to Secretary of War-Member of Board for the Study and Control of Epidemic
Diseases, office of the Surgeon General,
U.S.Army, 1942
Member Subcommittee on Infectious Diseases,
National Research Council, 1943
American Academy of Arts and Sciences
N. Y. Academy of Medicine
Honorary Member Pathological Society of Gr.Br. & Ire
Honorary Member Soc. of General Microbiology (Eng.)
American Academy Arts and Sciences