Professor Arthur Kornberg
Department of Biochemistry
Stanford, California

Dear Professor Kornberg:

The lecture series "Science-A Challenge to Man's Faith" in which you will take part, will be presented in the form you see below. All lectures will take place in the Large Lounge of Tresider Memorial Union at 8:00 p.m. on their respective dates. If it is convenient, would you please meet me at the information desk on the second floor of the Union at 7:45 preceding your lecture.

Jan. 14 Professor Eric Hutchinson: "Science and Religion: Complement or Competition?"

Jan. 28 Dr. Alan Watts: "The Universe and Man: A Meeting of Science and Mysticism."

Feb. 4 Professor Arthur Kornberg: "An Understanding of Life on a Molecular Basis."

Feb. 11 Bishop James A. Pike: "Roles of Science and Religion."

Feb. 18 Professor William Fairbank: "With Science, is Religion Necessary?"

Feb. 25 Professor J.R. McCullough: "The Field Concept in Traditional Eastern Thought."

Mar. 4 Professor Philip H. Rhinelander: "Faith-in what?"

Giving this lecture will represent a considerable expenditure of time and energy on your part, and for this we are deeply appreciative. Interested students as well as other members of the Stanford community will be looking forward to hearing you speak.

Sincerely yours,

Peter M. Brown
