

10/12/83 No answer

Hechner

anonymous message

To the many years of toil that you & your colleagues have spent in research have been a major contribution to medical science & agriculture.

All of Long Island honors you on this day. We thank you for your untiring search to unlock the mysteries that challenge the most highly gifted & intelligent scientists.

Have a wonderful day.

Thank you again & congratulations on winning the Nobel Prize.

See letter