Dear Emile--

Thank you for thinking of me in connection with your new journal; but it is quite impossible for me to undertake the task, and you would not press me to make a commitment that I felt I could not properly satisfy.

I am sorry it has been so long since seeing you. You still have not met my wife Marguerite. She was born in ~~xxx~~ Paris, but spend much of the War in Jarnac and in Angoulême, places we hope to visit sometime in the not-impossible future, and which would of course bring us not too far from you.

All best wishes,
