Dear Joshua:

I have begun to discuss some of your concepts of support needs but, like other such enterprises I have been engaged in, I find this takes time and much person to person communication. Nonetheless, I am hopeful it will be fruitful some time in the long run.

Sometime in the months of March or April I am coming East to discuss some research proposals in Washington and I will come on to New York if you are going to be available for me to talk with you. Lest you have to spend too much time reading this sort of communication, I'll quit here. ✓

Cordially yours,
