When was Monod famous?

P.S.

My hunch was right -- I just retrieved :

Aa Hinshelwood, Cyril Norman TI The chemical kinetics of the bacterial cell. CL 284 p. PP Oxford: At the Clarendon Press. DA 1946.

he makes extensive references to Monod. The book was published in 1946 (I can't recall just which month) but must have been written long before. And see his earlier papers, I haven't checked, say 1944 Biol. Revs. 19:158 -- it would be remarkable to know whether, when, how he had access to Monod's papers during the war.
