Dear Professor Lederberg:

I have been trying in vain to track down the Toynbee quote you are looking for. I enclose a copy of stories that thrash around in the general area you are interested in, but unfortunately none of them quotes Toynbee.

Thanks very much for your compliments on our editorial page. If the occasion should arise, I would be interested in learning a bit more about your views concerning Shockley, Jensen and Herrnstein, and in particular about the justice of this particular grouping.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Bartley
