

Memo/Reply From
JOSHUA LEDERBERG

TO: Bill Gorham
Urban Inst.

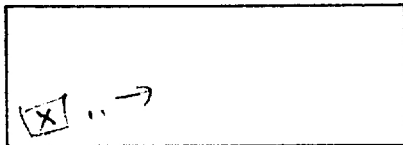

AUG - 3 1981

Hedley's

conclusions are interesting.
I'd be curious to hear Victor Fuchs' reaction!

In any case may I have a copy when it's published??

If I accept 85K per death averted at the margin -- for how many $B excess expenditure does that hold? and what part of our present health care investment could be abrogated with no effect on mortality? So how shape Δ investment where it does any good?

Joshua Lederberg
President
The Rockefeller University
New York, N.Y. 10021
(212) 360-1234

ORIG.
 COPY RETAINED

- REPLY FORM -