Dear Josh,

In November I wrote asking if you would be willing to give me a reference for the genetics position here (Science 209:1566 Sep 26 1980), since - a few years ago - you had indicated your willingness to do so, and since you were my major professor for a time.

Subsequent to the closing date (12/15) I have been told that no such letter has arrived. If you will write* I would appreciate it very much; if for any reason you cannot, could you please let me know as soon as possible so that I could seek a reference elsewhere?
Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,

Helen Bernstein
