Dear Josh,

When I hear the worldwide accolade of your scientific achievements, note your election to our distinguished societies, and sense our colleagues' estimation of your worth, I am filled with happiness for you, but when I learn of your appointment at Stanford and realize how little you will appreciate the wonderful advantages that institution offers, I am filled with envy. Nonetheless, heartfelt congratulations.

Is Bruce Stocker or Lucca still with you?

With all best wishes, to you and Esther,

Sincerely yours,

Francis J. Ryan
