Dear Mrs. Taylor

of course I recall our telephone conversation.

I am already moderately well acquainted with de Chardin, having read a couple of his works, and started a compulsively biographical by Culbert.
I was first introduced to the noosphere by Julian Huxley ("The Humanist Frame") and read a good deal of my philosophical outlets to him and to JBS Haldane.
This is not to say, of course, that I have no differences with any of them!

Thank you for the book, and for your comment.

Sincerely

Julian Huxley
