Dear Dr. Lederberg,

At the "Colloquium on Benefit-Risk Relationships for Decision Making" held in Washington the end of April, Chauncey Starr read a letter from you in which you made a monetary estimate ($100, I believe) for the biological hazard of one man-rem of radiation exposure.

I would very much appreciate receiving a copy of this letter so that I might reference it in a paper I am now writing.

Sincerely,

Harry J. Otway
