Howard---

I will be in NY and Washington the week of the 14th and will call you for a possible lunch or evening date Thursday or Friday. I am beginning to think the newswire might have some advantages; i.e., even sporadic coverage over a larger territory would serve better in the long run than the very limited distribution that my occasional 'overspecialization' seems to effect. Washington is, after all, the only market I really care about; and after that I really would like to see the Stanford campus paper have a chance to use the column, even in preference to the SF chronicle.

Anyhow, this is just one of the things I want to discuss with you. I know you're busy.
