

DSMITH

11/7/83

Dendrol

Dear Dennis:

"missing" - no mystery.

(Perhaps I should have said 'I miss "missing" you' - if you recall Kikkider's 'missings' = non-meetings on line).

Well, let's see if we can put some impulse on to the static friction: next time you're coming to Manhattan please call me and see if we can ad hoc a mtg. That's more likely than my diffusing to Pearl River

If that doesn't work, we'll try another tack.

My LEDERBERG@SUNEX mail is now laboriously forwarded back to me at R.U. UNIX. I'm logged on constantly. Do you still have a SUNEX acct.?

Since I wrote you, I tried to exercise CONCORD, but it doesn't really run now on TOPS 20. (Try it!) I was moved partly by trying to demonstrate its logic to David who's into Organic at Harvard, tonight, as you know, rather sadly. But he seems to enjoy the subject without standing.

Hope to see you soon,

Yours,
John.

☺ or family supper at home