Subject: Proposal entitled "MOGLEN: A computer Science Application to Molecular Genetics"

Gentlemen:

On behalf of Stanford University, I am pleased to submit twenty copies of our above-described proposal requesting research grant support. The proposed project's principal investigator would be Professor Edward A. Feigenbaum, Department of Computer Science.

The proposed project duration is two years, commencing June 1, 1976. The support level requested from the Foundation is $113,544. In addition to this sum, Stanford University will cost share in accordance with current Foundation policy.

This proposal has the endorsement of the University's administration. Should you need additional information please call me at (415) 497-2883. We look forward to the prospect of your favorable review.

Sincerely,

Raymond P. Girouard
Sponsored Projects Officer
