Dear Dr. Lederberg:

Thank you for the gift of the "Encyclopedia of Microbiology." We are especially blessed by your continued interest in our welfare. Your support of Stuyvesant High School is extraordinary and we are very much in your debt.

I called your office on the day the books arrived, but you had left for the day.

I shall call your office again, not only to express my thanks in person, but also to extend a formal invitation for you to visit the new building. In many ways, our new school was nurtured by the support you provided, and if anyone merits credit for its creation it is you. Please come at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Abraham Baumei
Principal
