

February 6, 1950.

Dr. Kaare Lilleengen,
Bacteriological Hygiene Department,
Royal Veterinary College,
Stockholm. Sweden.

Dear Dr. Lilleengen:

Thank you very much for the package of cultures which have just arrived by air, apparently in very good condition. I will keep you informed of any important progress, or difficulties, that we may encounter.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
Assistant Professor of Genetics.