Dear Tracy:

On receipt of your letter of November 15th I spoke to Lindegren and asked him to send you immediately a copy of his revised manuscript. He agreed to do that.

The difficulty as I see it is this. A drastic revision of discussion based upon the revised manuscript would, of course, necessitate the revision of Lindegren's reply. All of this would take time which Demerec does not think is available, so that probably the only two alternatives open to us is either to leave the discussion as is or to delete it. It was on the basis of these two alternatives that I suggested deletion as the fairest solution. I really do not see what else can be done without delaying inordinately the appearance of the volume. However, primarily this is Demerec's concern, and it is entirely up to him to make a decision on the matter.

I really regret deeply that this unfortunate situation arose but there was very little I could do to prevent it.

Cordially yours,

Sol
