

February 14, 1948.

Mr. S. F. Miller,
Bursar, Yale University,
New Haven, Conn.

Dear Mr. Miller,

Your letter of the 11th was not unexpected, as I had just been informed by the Hartford Office of the Veterans Administration that my claim for benefits was not to be allowed. Although I am still pursuing the matter, I shall endeavour to make payment to Yale University as soon as I can accumulate the necessary funds. I expect to send a check for the full amount due ($707.00) in three or four weeks if that will be satisfactory.

Yours sincerely,

Joshua Lederberg
Joshua Lederberg