Milano 20/5/58

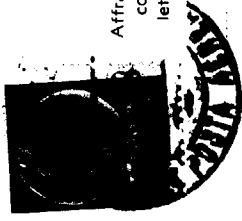

Dear Esther and John, you will excuse, I hope, this short writing, but as you can see from the thick envelopes Luca receives at the last, all my free time is dedicated to write to him. It's much a long time I want to tell you how very grateful I am for all the cards you give to Luca and I am only too sorry not to be able to share them with him. But as I already could find last winter, I do not see the possibility of leaving without being too worried myself, all these children. After your wonderful parcel yesterday, included myself played a lot with, was this better? He is in Luca arrived. I am really worried by all these sweet thoughts of yours. The big is most useful too, because she is enjoying it too very much, also while eating, and also the cake like pocket. Do you remember some of the views of Milan on the back? If you like to have any of them bigger, there are separate post-cards which I will be very glad to send. I wish Luca terribly, more and more every day. So please write hard, and try to finish very quickly by your common reaches as soon as possible. I'll send him back that put away. I so often think of you with the great affection and dream of being able to come to Milan. I hope you meet me myself. Love from
