Dear Dr Lederberg,
Thank you for your very friendly letter & the fascinating paper that accompanied it. The future with ~~you~~ be alarming, yes - but certainly not dull. Let's hope that the gentlemen who control our destiny will allow us to have a future - not just a nuclear potisserie or a long-drawn demographic chaos; (I was chiefly in India years & came away ably & smally depressed. A net increase of nine millions a year in underemployment rate of about 20% - 2 a bit or a no capital to what can virtually no capital to what can these poor up as a people live themselves more human life?) a slightly and mental of physical and mental of

I hope very much that I may have an opportunity of meeting you before long.
Let me know if you ever come this way. I myself

I expect to go north at the end of March for a lecture at Eugene, Oregon. But I hope to stop on the way up or down at Berkeley. Will you be at Stanford at that time? If so I wd like to look in on you there.

Sincerely,

A. W. Huxley.
