Dear Bruce:

Pleased to receive your last letter.

I will be going directly on to Nice and will be there through the week of January 11. Should the need arise, I can be contacted c/o The First International Space Science Symposium
Centre Universitaire Méditerranéen
Boulevard des Anglais
Nice, France

I am tentatively planning to return via Milan, to make a brief visit with Luca, and then to London. So I should arrive sometime in the afternoon or evening, Sunday, January 17th. I am booked to fly out for San Francisco on Monday at 10 a.m.

I will write you, possibly from Nice, with more definite information.

Looking forward to seeing you,

As ever,

Joshua Lederberg
