

The New York Times

WASHINGTON BUREAU
1920 L STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036

(202) 293-3100

March 6, 1970

Dear Professor Lederberg:

That is a favorite topic of mine, but frankly I've stolen most of my ideas on this from George Orwell. If you look at his essays and particularly the four volume collection of his letters and occasional pieces, I'm sure you'll find material of interest there.

Sincerely,

James Reston

JAMES RESTON