PREFACE.

OUR FLORAL HAND-BOOK has been received with unexpected favor. We now present a revised and much improved edition. In its preparation the best authorities have been consulted. The vocabulary of the Language of Flowers has been much enlarged, and all that care can do has been done to render it in every respect correct.

Flowers, from the earliest ages, have been associated with the tender sentiments of the heart, and thus have often been the means of telling the tale which words dare not speak. They too have been a source of poetic inspiration, and poesy of all ages has found images of joy and beauty

"In the bright consummate flower."

Hence we offer no apology for inserting throughout this little book a few gems of song, which we have culled to please and instruct our readers.

"Flowers are the brightest things which earth
On her broad bosom loves to cherish;
Gay they appear as children's mirth,
Like fading dreams of hope they perish.

By them the lover tells his tale;
They can his hopes, his fears express;
The maid, when looks or words would fail,
Can thus a kind return confess.

Then, lady, let the wreath we bring
For thee a wreath of beauty twine,
And as the blossoms deck the spring,
So every tender wish be thine."

Boston, January 1, 1856.

Deeds are fruits; words are but leaves.

The aroma and flavor of Burnett's Pure Extract Vanilla have made its name famous.

Who loves not flowers must have a heart of uncongenial soil. — Hemans.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1870.

In 1870 there will be four Eclipses of the Sun, and two of the Moon, — all invisible in our Atlantic States.

The small Solar Eclipses on January 31 and June 28, may be seen in high Southern, and that on July 28 in high Northern, latitudes; but the fourth, on December 22, will be central, and total near Cadiz and Constantinople, in Algiers and Sicily, in which the spectacle will be magnificent.

The Eclipses of the Moon on January 17 and July 12, will be total. The beginning of the former may be seen in our Pacific States, and the end of the latter in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Procrastination is the thief of time.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE

Is superior to all animal oils in the following particulars:—

It is a cooling Vegetable Oil. (Animal oils are heating.)

Its rapid absorption leaves little residue on the surface.
(Animal oils do not possess this peculiarity in any great degree.)

It does not quickly become rancid. (Animal oils do.)

It imparts glossiness to the hair by its penetrating power, rather than by mere outward lustre. (The contrary is true with regard to animal oils.)

The inventors of Cocaine, knowing that animal oils — Bear's Grease, Pomades, &c. — induce heat rather than alleviate it, turned their attention and pharmaceutical science towards Vegetable Oils as the basis of a medication to promote the growth and preserve the beauty of the hair. The Oleum Cocos, or presented itself most strongly as possessing many properties peculiarly adapted for the purpose; but its odor and density were objectionable, and seemed for a long time to defy all efforts to render it available for popular use. By a scientific selection of other ingredients, those which will chemically combine with the oil have been discovered, and they together have produced a topical compound which is unqualifiedly pronounced to be the best that has yet appeared.

COCOA-NUT OIL,

In the form here presented, this oil is permanently deodorized, and held in a combination which peculiarly adapts it to the Toilet.

Beware the fury of a patient man. — Dryden.

BURNETT'S COLOGNE WATER,

UNEQUALLED IN RICHNESS AND DELICACY OF PERFUME.

Frequent appeals have been made to us to supply a standard American Cologne. We have yielded to this demand, and add BURNETT'S COLOGNE WATER to our list. We believe it will be found worthy the generous confidence bestowed upon our other Toilet Preparations.

It is prepared from the purest and best materials, and with the utmost care. It is filled in elegant bottles of superior finish and beauty, — in themselves an ornament to any lady's toilet-stand. It is offered at a small advance upon the prime cost, and at a price within the reach of every one. Without effort on our part, it has, in a brief time, attained a large and constantly increasing sale, confirming the opinion of the best judges, that it is equal, if not superior, to the celebrated Farina.

One of the best Colognes ever made is Burnett's, of Boston. It is equal to the Farina, and is much cheaper. Full confidence can be given it. We speak from actual experience. — Baltimore American.

BURNETT'S COLOGNE is equal to the best imported. It is put up in a neat and elegant style, and wins for itself a favorite place on the dressing-table. Its intrinsic merits really justify the high reputation in which it is held. — Providence Journal.

BURNETT'S COLOGNE has attained a most enviable reputation. The article is of high proof, and is a refreshing perfume. — Boston Transcript.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE

Is an invaluable remedy for

DANDRUFF.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.

I have used less than a bottle. The dandruff, and the irritation which caused it, have entirely disappeared, and my hair was never before in so good condition.

A. A. FULLER.

BALDNESS.

BOSTON, Nov. 24.

I have used the contents of one bottle, and my bald pate is covered all over with young hair, about three-eighths of an inch long, which appears strong and healthy, and determined to grow.

D. T. MERWIN.

LOSS OF HAIR.

BOSTON, July 19.

One application allayed the itching and irritation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared — the hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth of new hair.

SUSAN R. POPE.

IRRITATION OF THE SCALP.

WATERVILLE, ME., Sept. 15.

I purchased a bottle only, for the purpose of a hair dressing; but, to my surprise, it has entirely removed the irritation of so long standing. I have recommended it to several of my friends, who were afflicted in the same way, and it has wholly eradicated the disease.

JOSEPH HILL, JR.

HAIR-DRESSING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.

For some time past I have been using your Cocaine, and think it far preferable to anything I have ever used for the hair.

FRANK LESLIE.

The greatest efficacy of the Cocaine is best secured by a perfect cleansing, before its application, of the hair and scalp, under which circumstances it allays irritation, removes all tendency to dandruff, and invigorates the action of the capillaries in the highest degree. Its effect upon the glossiness and richness of the appearance of the hair is such as cannot be surpassed.

AUGUST.

The garden blooms with vegetable gold,
 And all Pomona in the orchard glows.
 Hope, the forerunner of the farmer's gain,
 Visits his dreams and multiplies the grain.

BURNETT'S FLORIMEL.

A PERFUME FOR THE HANDKERCHIEF.

This exquisite bouquet is so highly concentrated that a few drops will leave its peculiar and delightful fragrance upon the handkerchief for many hours.

BURNETT'S FLORIMEL is so delicate and pure that it will not discolor muslin, and yet so permanent in its effects that the flavor clings for weeks. It is really wonderful that so delicate a perfume should be so permanent. — Hartford Courant.

Its odor is that of an exquisite bouquet of choice and delicate flowers, without too much of that peculiar sweetness so common in French extracts, which satiates and sickens the senses. — Boston Transcript.

BURNETT'S FLORIMEL. — Prepared with such exquisite skill that it successfully rivals the best foreign perfumes. — Eastern Journal.

BURNETT'S ORIENTAL TOOTH-WASH.

A SUPERIOR DENTIFRICE.

It beautifies the teeth and gums.

It arrests decay of the teeth.

It cures canker in the mouth.

It is unsurpassed as a gargle.

It acts as a detergent after smoking.

It renders the gums hard and healthy.

It neutralizes the offensive secretions of the mouth.

It imparts to the breath a fragrance purely aromatic and pleasant.

It has received the sanction and patronage of the most eminent of the dental and medical faculty.

The Elixir for the Teeth and Gums combines, in a concentrated form, the most desirable cleansing and astringent properties; at the same time, it contains nothing which can possibly injure the most sensitive and delicate organization.

Trifles often lead to serious results.

Woman's eye seldom is a glittering eye: If death lurks in it, oh, how sweet to die!

The mute repose of sweetly breathing flowers. — Hfordworth.

JONAS WHITCOMB'S
REMEDY FOR ASTHMA,
ROSE COLD, HAY FEVER, &c.

This remedy has been used in thousands of the worst cases, with astonishing and uniform success; and is offered to the public with full confidence in its merits.

Extract from the "Life of Washington Irving," by his nephew, Pierre M. Irving, Vol. IV., page 272.

"The doctor prescribed, as an experiment, — what had been suggested by Dr. (O. W.) Hofner on his late visit, — 'Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for Asthma,' a teaspoonful in a wine-glass of water, to be taken every four hours. A good night was the result."

"I have had the spasmodic asthma fifteen years. I commenced taking 'Jonas Whitcomb's Remedy for the Asthma' eighteen months ago, and have not had a severe paroxysm since." SARAH SEELY, Eddytown, Yates Co., N. Y., to Editors Rural New Yorker.

"Have sold 'Whitcomb's Remedy' for nearly twenty years. I know of nothing so uniformly successful." THEODORE METCALF, Druggist, Tremont St., Boston.

"I have derived very great benefit from 'Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy.'" G. F. OSBORNE, President Neptune Insurance Co., Boston, Mass.

"I cannot express in too strong terms my appreciation of the merits of this 'Remedy,' and I earnestly recommend its use." JACOB D. STONE, formerly P. M. at Haver, N. Y.

"Has done me more good than any medicine I ever had." W. C. KELLAR, of Bantlin & Kellar, Cincinnati, O.

"My mother had suffered eight years from the harvest asthma. The recurrence of this three-months' agony every year must soon wear her out. 'Jonas Whitcomb's Asthma Remedy' arrested the terrible disease, and has kept it off for the whole season, to the great joy of the family." Rev. JOS. E. EOY, Chicago Agent of the American Home Missionary Society, to the N. Y. Independent.

WHITCOMB'S ASTHMA REMEDY

contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.

Truth fears nothing but concealment

Asthma, Rose Cold, and Hay Fever, are cured by Whitcomb's Remedy.

NEW YORK SUPERIOR COURT.

AT THE SPECIAL TERM, April, 1870.

PIERREPONT, Justice. The following decision was given:

"It appeared before me, upon the trial of this cause, that the plaintiff, in November, 1866, compounded, from Coconut Oil and other ingredients, a mixture to be used upon the human hair; that he devised a name never before used, by which to mark his said compound, to wit: — the name or word 'Cocaine'; that he forthwith published in all his circulars, and in all the principal newspapers of the country, and especially in the city of New York, where the defendants reside, that he had adopted the above-mentioned name or title as a 'Trade-Mark,' to secure the public and the proprietors against imposition, and that all unauthorized use of this trade-mark would be prosecuted.

"About two years after the first introduction of this article by the plaintiffs, the defendants, residents of the city of New York, commenced the sale of a somewhat similar preparation, put up in bottles not unlike those of the plaintiff's.

"The proof is clear that the plaintiff had, for nearly two years, advertised his mixture in nearly every newspaper in this city, and had published in the same papers that he had adopted the word 'Cocaine' as his 'Trade-Mark.' The defendant was himself a witness, and he did not suggest that these notices had not been brought home to his knowledge; the conclusion is irresistible, that he was aware of their publication, and he intentionally adopted 'Cocaine' as a close imitation of 'Cocaine,' and for the purpose of deriving profit from the simulated trade-mark.

"The plaintiff is entitled to judgment, and an injunction must issue."

NEW YORK COURT OF APPEALS.

At the July Term, 1867. DAVIES, Chief Justice, the following FINAL decision was given:—

"Upon the facts found by the Court, the right of the plaintiffs to the relief granted is clear. The plaintiffs have adopted, appropriated, and used a certain trade-mark. This has become their property; and for its protection the plaintiffs are entitled to invoke the aid of courts of justice. We have the ascertained fact that the defendants are using a spurious imitation of the plaintiffs' trade-mark. This they cannot be permitted to do.

"The judgment of the Superior Court of New York was correct, and should be affirmed, with costs."
