I wish these twelve beds to be free forever, they are for the sick poor, or for those poor who have met with accidents or casualties. Two out of the twelve beds shall be for the use of "Incurable Patients," forever.

GERMANTOWN, October 7th, 1870.

To the Board of Managers of the “Germantown Dispensary and Hospital.”

GENTLEMEN:—Mr. Mortimer Lewis, having informed me that there was some discussion upon the subject of receiving some weekly payment from patients who were anxious to contribute, and that it might be thought to interfere with my wish of making all the beds free: I beg to state, that I do not consider that such weekly contributions given by such patients according to their ability, will in any way interfere with the charity intended by the Hospital.

I am gentlemen, with much respect,
Yours truly,

PAULINE E. HENRY.

WAYNE STREET, GERMANTOWN,
November 14th, 1870.

To the President and Directors of "Germantown Dispensary and Hospital."

GENTLEMEN:—As I had wished and intended the Hospital to be given you in complete condition and entirely furnished, no limit having been made by me to the architect, and understanding from F. Mortimer Lewis, that certain necessary things have been omitted in the building, and also that some articles of furniture were needed, I herein enclose my check for one thousand dollars, ($1,000) the same to be applied to payment of expenses incurred, such as gutters, pipes, enclosing cellar way from kitchen, &c., &c., extra mattresses, &c., &c.
