Official Reporter—MRS. ISABEL C. BARROWS, Boston, Mass.

THE TWENTIETH NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHARITIES AND CORRECTION will be held in Chicago, June 8 to 11 inclusive.

The proceedings will vary from the usual plan. The Conference being of an anniversary and historical character, its proceedings will be devoted to a survey of the progress made and the reforms accomplished in the field of charities and correction during the past twenty years. The president's annual address will be a review of the work of the National Conference and the relations to the important changes which have taken place in the methods of dealing with the dependent, delinquent and defective classes. The committees' reports will present comparisons of present conditions with those of twenty years ago. The reports from States and Territories will compare present systems of charities and correction with those of twenty years ago. There will be no section work, and no discussion of papers in the meetings of the National Conference.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF CHARITIES, CORRECTION AND PHILANTHROPY, which will follow immediately the National Conference, has provided in its program for section work and discussions, and all such work has been transferred to it.

PLACE OF MEETING.

The Meetings of the Conference will be held in the PERMANENT MEMORIAL ART PALACE erected on the Lake Front Park, through the co-operation of the Art Institute of Chicago, the city of Chicago and the Directory of the World's Columbian Exposition.

RAILROAD RATES.

No special rates have been made for delegates attending the conference, other than those provided for all persons attending the Columbian Exposition.

HOTELS, ETC.

The committee on hotel accommodations makes the following announcement:

For the accommodation of delegates to the Twentieth National Conference of Charities and Correction (June 8 to 11) and to the International Congress of Charities, Correction and Philanthropy (June 12 to 18) the committee of organization of the latter body has arranged for hotel headquarters in the heart of the city and in the vicinity of the Exposition.

THE CITY HEADQUARTERS will be the Great Northern Fire Proof Hotel, at the corner of Jackson and Dearborn streets, four squares from the Art Institute where both conventions will meet, and three squares from the Illinois Central Railroad, the most rapid means of transportation to the exposition. The proprietors of the Great Northern Hotel announce the following rate for the Congresses:

For a room sufficiently large to accommodate two persons, from four to ten dollars per day according to size, whether the room be occupied by one or two persons. Rooms for which the charge is six dollars or more have bath room attached. The price asked does not include board. There are excellent restaurants in the hotel.

THE EXPOSITION HEADQUARTERS will be the Pullman Hotel located in the block bounded by Washington and Madison avenues and Fifty-fifth street, about five minutes' walk from the north entrance to the Exposition grounds and forty minutes by train from the Art Institute. The proprietor of this hotel announces the following rates:

For a single room for one person from $2 to $3 per day, for a double room for one or two persons $4 to $5 per day. These prices do not include board. There is an excellent restaurant in the hotel.

OTHER ACCOMMODATIONS. Delegates who desire lower priced accommodations than those here offered may obtain them at from seventy-five cents a day upward by addressing the Bureau of Public Comfort of the World's Columbian Exposition, Rand, McNally Building, Chicago. The bureau is operated under the direct auspices of the Exposition and is reliable and responsible.

RESERVATION OF ROOMS. Accommodations in both these hotels will be reserved only until April fifth. If you desire a room fill out the enclosed blank and mail it immediately accompanied by a draft on New York, or postal or express order payable to N. S. Rosenau, Secretary, for ten dollars, which sum you are obliged to deposit with the hotel proprietor to insure him against loss through your failure to come, and which will be deducted from the amount of your bill. The committee of organization can secure no promise of rooms for any persons who do not reserve them before April fifth.

RAILWAY STATIONS.

The Great Northern Hotel is convenient to all the main stations of the railways entering Chicago. If you intend to stay at the Pullman Hotel and come to Chicago by the Illinois Central; the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis (Big Four), the Michigan Central or the Chicago and West Michigan railways, leave your train at Hyde Park Station which is but a few squares from the hotel. Delegates arriving on any other railways than these will find it most convenient to go to the main stations and then take a suburban train on the Illinois Central railway to South Park Station which is about five minutes' walk from the hotel.

MEMBERSHIP.

The following are eligible as voting members of the Conference: Ex-officers of the Conference, members and officers of boards of State charities, trustees of public and private charitable and correctional institutions or societies, members of boards and societies for the relief or improvement of the poor, and persons designated by State or municipal authorities, or by the local committee where the conference is held. While such only are entitled to the privilege of voting, any person interested in the work of the Conference may be enrolled as a member, and may share in the discussions without the power to vote.

At the Denver meeting, held in June, 1892, an annual membership fee of two dollars was established, which fee will also entitle the member to a copy of the proceedings and publications of the Conference. A list of all members will appear in the proceedings, with asterisks marking those in attendance on the Conference. Applications for membership may be sent to the treasurer, Mr. John M. Glenn, Baltimore, Md. (See enclosed "Membership for 1893.")
